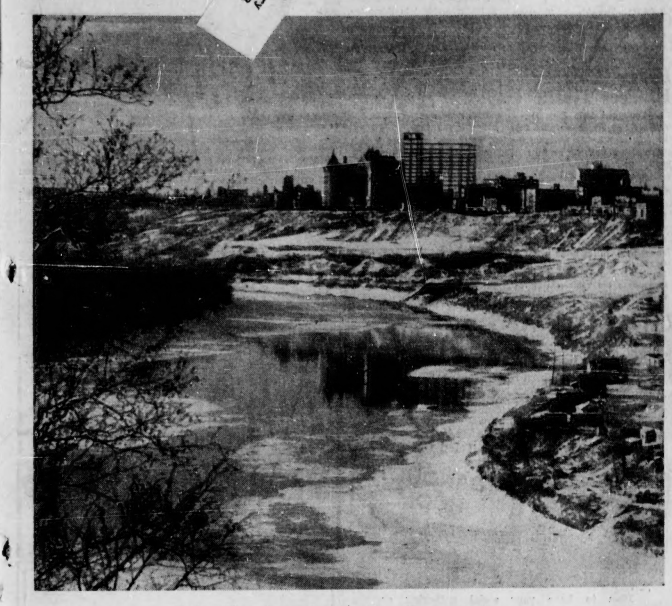
Canada Navy Helps Evacuate Thousands



It's Springtime in December

BALMY CHINOOK brings spring in December to Edmonton's Saskatchewan river valley. Warm winds from western sea and sunny Alberta skies produce watery channel in otherwise frozen river. Staff photographer Bland's camera catches reflection of Macdonald hotel and other buildings in background.

Attlee Now In Ottawa For Talks

Important Parley With Canadian Cabinet Is Set

OTTAWA, Dec. 9.—(CP)—Prime Minister Attlee landed here at 11:46 a.m. EST today for important talks on the perils of Korea and the drive to build up western strength.

Prime Minister St. Laurent led in a formal, distinguished greeting at Rockcliffe airport as Mr. Attlee stepped down from a big, four-engined RCAF transport plane after a 90-minute flight from New York.

Behind them, artillerymen fired 19 rounds and a 100-man RCAF guard of honor snapped to attention.

Mr. Attlee told reporters that he is pleased to be in Canada. However, he declined to answer questions until a press conference is held at noon tomorrow.

CONSULTATION

Authoritative sources said Mr. Attlee will go into consultation with the Canadian cabinet this afternoon in what will be, to a considerable degree, an extension of the conversations he held this week with President Truman.

They said the agenda includes the immediate perils of Korea and the related perils of large-scale war with China.

Officials said Canadian and British policy appear to be pretty well in line on the Korean issue. Both believe in exclusion of the atom bomb there and in all possible efforts to negotiate with the Chinese when the suitable moment has arrived.

JANUARY MEETING

Mr. Attlee will meet Mr. St. Laurent alone at 3 p.m. and they have as one of their subjects that of the January conference of Commonwealth prime ministers. It too, will be deeply concerned with the global threat of Communism.

Mr. Attlee was accompanied here from United Nations headquarters by three Canadian cabinet ministers, External Affairs Minister Pe. son, Defence Minister Claxton and Veterans Affairs Minister Lapointe.

The British prime minister is slated to leave for London tomorrow.

NAMED high commissioner for France in troubled Indo-China is top military leader Gen. Jean deLattre deTassigny. He was given full civil and military powers to conduct war against Reds.

Fog Snarls Traffic Here, Planes Late

A Sylvan Lake man was seriously injured in one of three highway accidents caused by dense fog conditions and slippery roads last night.

He is Gordon Keith, who suffered two broken legs in a road crash at Morinville. He was taken to General hospital by Smith's ambulance, where his condition is "favorable."

RCMP said Keith was changing a tire at midnight on the Athabaska Highway when he was struck by a car driven by Luc Demers.

Heavy fog blanketed the district for 11 hours as a cold air mass moving into Edmonton plunged temperatures to an overnight low of four above.

The colder weather will remain, with sunny skies and light winds today.

Last night's fog moved in on the city at 6 p.m., coming from the Peace River and Lesser Slave Lake area and covering a land strip 250 to 300 miles wide

It cut visibility to an eighth of a mile in most parts of the city, and made driving on both city streets and out-of-town highways a hazard.

When the fog blanket was at its

Other Trapped UN Forces Still Fight

LONDON, Dec. 9.—(BUP)—The admiralty reported today that 7,000 soldiers and civilians have been evacuated from the port of Pyongyang, North Korean capital which UN forces lost this week. It described the evacuation as one of the most hazardous naval operations of the war. Date of the evacuation was not given. Refugees, port workers and service troops were rescued in the operation, which the admiralty said was covered by Canadian and U.S. destroyers.

TOKYO, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Greatly-outnumbered allied 10th Corps troops battled 100,000 Chinese Communists and blizzard blasts today with new hope of rescue and evacuation by sea from northeast Korea.

A force of more than 20,000 United States Marines and infantrymen and a few British Commandos was reported on the verge of reinforcing aid from a rescue column pushing inland.

(Reuters news agency quoted front-line reports as saying the trapped U.S. Marines and infantrymen along with British Commandos today linked up with the rescue troops.)

Vice-Admiral C. Turner Joy, United Nations naval commander, told war correspondents on the northeast front that his ships are standing off Hungnam port in the Sea of Japan in readiness to meet "any eventuality."

This apparently meant a "Little Dunkirk" withdrawal for allied ground fighters able to battle their way to Hungnam to board the ships.

Three American divisions and two of the Republic of Korea are either trapped or menaced gravely by the Chinese Red hordes spread over the rugged, frigid northeast Korea sector.

URGENT CONFERENCE

Admiral Joy made his any eventuality remark when asked by correspondents whether the sea escape was planned.

It came after an urgent conference Joy had with Maj-Gen. Edward M. Almond, 16th Corps commander, and top navy and marine officers aboard ship at Hungnam.

The more than 20,000 1st Division marines and 7th Division infantry men were the largest intact unit of the forces trying to reach Hungnam.

They were inching southward from the Changlin reservoir area toward the coast.

Almond at 1:30 p.m. Saturday announced they were nearing a link-up with a northbound rescue column from the coast.

WEATHER BAD

Search Party Probes Lost Plane Clue

RCAF four-man search and rescue team was headed for a heavily wooded area near Edson today to investigate the scene where a piece of orange colored silk believed to be from a parachute was found by an Edmonton hunter.

An eight-inch piece of the silk, now in possession of the RCAF is part of a larger section found by John Hipfner, 9502-86 avenue, while hunting elk.

The search party, headed by Hipfner and Corp. Ken Clarke will also investigate shreds of other material which Hipfner says he saw in the area.

WITHIN RANGE

The isolated spot, 14 miles south of Wolf Creek is within the possible range of the yellow Cessna Crane aircraft which disappeared with five hunters aboard on a routine flight from Grande Prairie, Oct. 14.

Since then no trace has been found of their whereabouts.

RCAF officials said they had no theory for the origin of the materials found by Hipfner, but pointed out the internationally orange parachutes were used when dropping canisters of supplies or flares.

The search party left by car at 9.30 a.m. today. They will walk in from Edson to the search area.

MISSING MEN

Thre of the men missing since the privately owned Cessna vanished in northern Alberta bushlands are James W. Mulcahy, Joe Dory and Stuart Reid of Edmonton.

The others are Harry Pennington, the pilot-owner, and Harry Morton, Vancouver.

Relatives of the missing Edmonton men said they would not accompany the RCAF search party which left today.

3 Men Injured

LIVERPOOL, England, Dec. 9.—(Reuters)—Three men were injured last night—two of them seriously—when staging collapsed in an empty oil tank of the 20,448-ton Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France.

Drum Majorette Is Heroine Of Camrose School Fire

Special to The Bulletin

CAMROSE, Dec. 9.—A 14-year-old drum majorette school girl is heroine of Camrose today.

The student, 14-year-old Tilly Hiudko, turned in a fire alarm as fire broke out in the John Russell school yesterday at Camrose, warning students and teachers in the building who made their way to safety without panic or injury.

The 3:30 p.m. fire occurred when senior students from grades six to nine were still in their classrooms, although younger students were at recess.

Tilly Hiudko was one of several practicing baton-swinging in a third floor room of the 19-classroom school.

"She showed wonderful presence of mind," her teachers said today.

SOUNDS ALARM

Using her drum majorette's baton, Tilly smashed the glass in a fire alarm box signal to start the alarm sounding through the school.

As the pupils heard it, they moved quickly and orderly from their desks and filed out of the building, believing the alarm signalled another fire drill like those held frequently at the school for many years.

Only when they were safely outside the building were they able to see smoke rising from the roof of the brick building.

$40,000 DAMAGE

Flames spread quickly from the roof of the brick structure, completely destroying the building and causing damage estimated at more than $40,000.

Efforts of the Camrose fire department to quell the blaze were futile, although some of the school children's heavy winter coats were salvaged from the building by volunteers.

Six lines of hose and a booster pump were utilized in the fight against the fire, but only the walls of the building remained standing after the fire was brought under control.

Meanwhile, while flames were still raging, members of the school board began to discuss what emergency plans can be made to teach the more than 300 Camrose and district children from grades two to nine. Temporary rooms may be found in local halls and buildings.

Cause of the fire is unknown.

FOOT LOOSE THIEF TAKES PRACTICE RUN

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Dec. 9—(AP)—A thief ran foot-loose and fancy free in the Mutual Building and Loan Building here.

He broke into six offices.

But he didn't take anything.

The police wonder whether he was just practicing.

London Meet Set For Pact Military Chiefs

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the United States joint chiefs of staff, announced today that military chiefs of the 12 North Atlantic Treaty countries will meet in London next Tuesday.

The meeting is expected to speed up western defence preparations by:

1. Seeking an agreement on the manner in which Germany can share in the program.

2. Setting the stage for early appointment of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower as supreme commander of the western defence force.

PARTICULAR EMPHASIS

Bradley said the military committee will consider military and political problems with particular emphasis upon the problem of German participation in setting up anti-Communist defences.

The North Atlantic council of deputies agreed earlier this week on a plan to recruit 100,000 Germans under a civilian administrator. These Germans would be merged with the western allied forces in units of not more than 5,000 men. But German officials have said they will not participate on this basis.

Fire Destroys City Plant

Fire gutted the storeroom and shipping room of Parker Sportswear Company, 8228-105 street early today, causing thousands of dollars damage.

The call came into the South Side station at 3:09 a.m.

District Chief J. Robertson said that the fire must have broken out some hours before that, for when firemen arrived it had already burned out the storeroom and shipping room, and was breaking through the roof.

Prompt action of the firemen cut the blaze off from the rest of the building where 30 machines were located. Answering the call were two pumping engines, one from No. 2 station, and a ladder truck. Eighteen firemen brought the blaze under control in one hour.

Estimate of the damage was $60,000.

Bolts of material stored in the building were completely destroyed.

Cause of the blaze has not yet been determined.

Company officials said there is insurance to cover damages.

LOCOMOTIVES CRUSH CAR

CROWLAND, Ont., Dec. 9—(CP)—Marvin Joseph Pilon, 25, coach line mechanic, was killed last night when his automobile was sandwiched between two locomotives.

Police and garage men worked 30 minutes to pry his body from the wrecked car.

Canoe River Casualty Dies

Death toll of the Canoe River train disaster mounted to 21 today with the unexpected death early this morning of Gnr. David Owens, of Granby, Que.

He was one of six soldiers injured in the trooper-passenger train wreck, Nov. 21, and was placed on a dangerously ill list when brought to University hospital the next day.

Later, his condition was reported improved. Authorities at the hospital said today his death came unexpectedly after he was apparently on the road to recovery.

Vatican Pilgrimages Slowed Up by War

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 9.—(Reuters)—Vatican officials said yesterday that pilgrimages from North America had almost ceased since the Korean crisis, but those from European countries continued as usual. More than 70 large pilgrimages would arrive in Rome in the last two weeks before the closing on Christmas Eve of the church's 25th jubilee holy year.

Spy Courier Gets Prison

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 9—(AP)—Harry Gold, research chemist, today was sentenced to 30 years in prison as the self-confessed courier of a Russian atomic spy ring—a crime he told the court was a "terrible mistake."

Gold was sentenced to two terms of 30 years each, to run concurrently. He was charged with espionage in wartime, which carries a maximum penalty of death. The federal government recommended 25 years in prison.

The soft-spoken 39-year-old Philadelphian received the sentence calmly after a brief statement before the bar. He said:

"Nothing has served more since my arrest to prove to me what a terrible mistake I made than the manner in which my court-appointed counsel have worked hard on my behalf, despite personal criticism and invective."

Good Progress Seen In British Exports

MIDDLESBROUGH, Eng., Dec. 9.—(Reuters)—Sir Cecil Weir, chairman of the Dollar Export Board, said yesterday that Britain was making good progress in its plans annually to export goods worth $600,000,000 to Canada and $400,000,000 to the United States. He said these "are interim and not final objectives. In the long-term we should set no limits to trade."

French Clear Rebel Nests

SAIGON, Indo-China, Dec. 9.—(AP)—French troops have completed a campaign to mop up rebel nests inside the Red river delta defence zone, the army said today.

A French military spokesman said partols, climaxing several weeks of offensive operations, killed 112 of the Communist-led Vietminh fighters Thursday and captured hundreds more.

The delta area is a rich rice-producing region between Hanoi, the provincial capital of North Vietminh, and the Tonkin gulf port of Haiphong.

BUT HAS RIGHT TASTE

This Gentleman's Gentleman Hardly a Gentleman in Deed

MIAMI, Dec. 9—(BUP)—Police in Miami, Florida, have caught up with a gentleman who tried to bring in his ship . . even though the stream was too shallow.

The gentleman—Harold Stanley Barker, formerly of Wembley, England, is a gentleman's gentleman by trade. When he arrived in Los Angeles, his waxed moustache, suave manner, and properly accented "yes, sir" and "no, sir" earned him many jobs as a butler with wealthy families.

But Barker's many associations in gilt-edged circles apparently created a desire for golden opportunities of his own. So, while in Palm Beach, he visited an exclusive yacht broker's office and asked for "a seaworthy craft . . . something to knock around the keys . . . something between $100,000 and $150,000."

The yacht dealer—Fred Driver—had just what the butler ordered . . . a little $150,000 job. He took the prospective client for a ride, treated him to lunch, and even arranged to make expensive alterations on the vessel after gitting a check for $13,000 as a down payment.

The yacht was moved from Palm Beach to Miami and specifications drawn up for the changes. Then the bank bounced the check back.

Barker was picked up in Miami, his golden and expansive moment scarcely more than a memory.

He had but $8 in his pocket . . . while looking for another job as a gentleman's gentleman.

Negro Tenement Fire Kills Eight

CHICAGO, Dec. 9 — (AP) — Eight persons — including seven members of one family—perished early today as fire swept a four-storey tenement building in the South Side Negro district.

Mrs. Mary Mason, 34, identified her husband, Jacob, 38 their five children, and her sister, Mrs. Louedna Simon at the county morgue. The eighth body was identified as that of Mrs. Thelma Elizabeth Divens.

Extension Of Rent Controls Okayed In U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9 — (AP) — The Senate yesterday went along with the House of Representatives and voted for a three-month extension of the federal rent control law.

The action is in line with President Truman's request.

Senate approval of a continuance through March 31 came shortly after a Senate-House conference committee reached a compromise resolving differences between the separate bills passed Thursday by the two branches of Congress.

Truman Threatens Beating To Critic of His Daughter

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—President Truman has threatened in a blistering letter to beat up a music critic who said daughter Margaret's voice was flat.

The letter—written on White House stationery, in the president's own handwriting—went out Wednesday to Paul Hume, critic for the Washington Post, who had turned thumbs down on Miss Truman's concert in Constitution Hall the night before.

This unofficial version of the president's letter was published yesterday in the Washington Daily News.

"I have just read your lousy review buried in the back pages. You sound like a frustrated old man who never made a success, an eight-ouser man on a four-ulcer job, and all four ulcers working.

'NEED NEW NOSE'

"I never met you, but if I do you'll need a new nose and plenty of beefsteak and perhaps a supporter below, . . ."

MARGARET TRUMAN
. . . "can't sing well"

Hume himself said the published version was almost word-for-word with the letter he received, except that it left out a couple of paragraphs. There were hints that the full version contained language at least equally strong.

Hume, 34, declined to make the full text public. He said in a statement:

"I can only say that a man suffering the loss of a close friend and carrying the terrible burden of the present world crisis ought to be indulgent in an occasional outburst of temper."

The reference was to Charles G. Ross, Truman's secretary and longtime friend, who died a few hours before Miss Truman's concert.

Hume said in his review of the concert that Miss Truman "can not sing very well" and "is flat a good deal of the time."

"It is an extremely unpleasant duty to record such unhappy facts about so honestly appealing a personality."

Hume is 32 years younger than the 66-year-old president, and weighs 165 pounds to Truman's 180 or more. Friends said he had no intention of engaging in any controversy, fistic or otherwise, with the president.

Blast From Vishinsky Is Forecast

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Dec. 9.—(AP)—Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky is expected to issue a Communist blast against alleged American aggression in Korea today.

Col. Ben Limb, foreign minister of the Republic of Korea, is scheduled to answer him with the charge that the war in Korea is part of a world-wide Communist conspiracy.

The word battle takes place in the United Nations 60-member political committee which is debating a resolution ordering the Chinese Communists out of Korea and guaranteeing to respect their frontiers.

Vishinsky already has claimed that there is no Chinese intervention in Korea and that soldiers of the Communist Peiping regime rushed voluntarily to the embattled peninsula out of spontaneous enthusiasm to help their Communist comrades.

GIVE UP HOPE

Cuba's Gustavo Gutierrez denounced this version of the facts yesterday as nothing but the old shell game by which Vishinsky was trying to cheat the free world as a mountebank does the peasants at a village fair.

Cuba — along with the United States, Britain, France, Norway and Ecuador, is a sponsor of the resolution under discussion.

American delegate Ernest G. Gross said last night that the United States had given up hope of reaching a vote today and did not expect the issue to come to a head until some time next week.

It had been evident for several days that many delegations—particularly those 13 from Asia and the Middle East which signed a truce appeal to Red China—wanted to go slow.

They feel that it is vital to take no definite action until a reply from Peping arrives. Several of them hope it may come today, but there is no promise of it.

Armed Forces Pay Increases In Last Stages

OTTAWA, Dec. 9 — (CP) — The government is in the last stages of consideration of pay increases for the armed forces and final approval is expected next week, authoritative quarters said yesterday.

Defence Minister Claxton has been pressing for months for increases, arguing both that they would help the recruiting drive and that they would relieve genuine distress among some of the 63,000 men already in the three armed services.

Informed quarters said virtual approval has been given now but the final details remain to be worked out and sanctioned, probably at next Wednesday's cabinet meeting. Earlier it was reported final approval has already been given.

Dentist Sued As Man's Death Caused by Sponge

OTTAWA, Dec. 9.—(CP)—The death last February of Lee Robert Holt, 20, has resulted in a $15,000 action against Dr. Percy Nesbitt, Ottawa dentist.

Holt died in the dentist's office while having 10 teeth extracted. The plaintiff is his widow, Miss Mina Kathleen Holt.

At the hearing in Ontario Supreme court this week, Dr. Max Klotz, who performed the autopsy, testified he found a rubbed dental sponge which had blocked Holt's windpipe. Dr. Klotz said death was caused by strangulation.

Canadian Navy Helps Evacuation

heading for Hungnam, 45 miles away.

Fighting in blizzard conditions that deprived them of air support the 20,000 were fired upon by dug-in Chinese Communists overlooking the icy mountain road down to the lowlands and the sea.

Secrecy was kept over the whereabouts of the 7th Division's 17th Regimental combat team and two South Korean divisions. The 17th, only U.S. unit to reach the Manchurian border, was ordered days ago to withdraw from the Yalu river border town of Hyesanjin.

Some elements of the South Korean capital division, which had pushed north toward the border from Chonglin, were evacuated by water. The rest were reported withdrawing by land to Hungnam.

WONSAN ABANDONED

General Almond said the east coast port of Wonsan, south of Hungnam, was abandoned by American forces "because we no longer need that port and the supply port at Hungnam is much the better of the two."

Whereabouts of the South Korean 3rd Division was undisclosed.

In the northwest, the main action was allied air attacks on Communist attempts to build up for smashes at the new Eighth Army defence line south of Pyongyang, North Korean capital.

There was little ground activity in the northwest except patrol encounters. U.N. forces continued to withdraw south of Pyongyang and improve divisional positions.

CONVOYS BLASTED

Large convoys of Chinese Communist troops and equipment were blasted by air attack as they moved south toward Pyongyang. The seemingly endless stream included many troops with oxcarts and one train carrying 13 tanks.

U.S. Fifth Air Force pilots, who claimed 1,100 casualties inflicted on the Communists Friday, reported three separate air battles Saturday with Russ an-built MIG-15 jet fighters near Sinuiju, on the Yalu River across from Manchuria. The Americans reported no damage, and said they scored hits on one of the total of 14 enemy aircraft encountered.

Negotiation Deal Open to Russia

Truman, Attlee Make Effort To Negotiate Korean Peace

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee held open to Russia and Communist China today an offer to negotiate—but with "no thought of appeasement"—the settlement of the Korean conflict and other critical world issues.

The offer was coupled with a grimly-determined agreement that until the Communist powers "modify their conduct" in the interests of peace, the United States and Britain must push with maximum speed their military preparation for the defence of the free world.

LITTLE PROSPECT

Essentially, the president and prime minister in their joint summary yesterday of their historic talks put the blame squarely on Russia and Communist China for the dangerous state of world affairs. And they called on those countries to change their ways so "the defence preparation" would become unnecessary.

This proposal to end the East-West arms race, qualified as it was with rejection of any "appeasement" or any Korean settlement which would have the effect of "rewarding aggression," apparently has little prospect of Communist acceptance.

The communique was issued at the White House shortly after conclusion of the talks which began last Monday. The British prime minister left immediately for New York, en route to Ottawa and London. Aides described him as being well pleased with the meeting.

NO SECRETS

It also reported that Truman agreed to keep Attlee informed of any circumstances which might appear to make the use of the Atomic bomb necessary.

That was generally assessed as an implied promise of the opportunity for consultation.

Both British and American officials said no secret agreements had been made during the talks.

Calgary Flood Damage Placed At $550,000

CALGARY, Dec. 9.—(CP)—Alderman Noel Hutchinson, civic defence and disaster co-ordinator, said today that damage by floods which made 3,000 Calgarians homeless last week-end was "conservatively estimated" at $550,000.

Of the total, $225,000 damage was suffered by residents, $275,000 by business firms.

A city-wide appeal was launched today to raise a $550,000 flood fund.

President Syngman Ree put martial law into effect in South Korea without waiting for the formal approval of the national assembly and Gen. MacArthur's headquarters announced temporary suspension of its briefings of war correspondents.

Foggy Weather Hinders Traffic

worse, a late model car piled into the rear of a trailer truck on the Nisku highway shortly before midnight. The car was badly damaged, but only slight damage to the truck resulted.

Slippery roads caused a collision at Namao, five miles north of Edmonton, when a car driven by George Fleming, 11338-94 street was in collision with a Canadian Equipment Sales and Service Co. truck. Only slight damage to the vehicles was reported.

Minor accidents in which no one was injured occurred on Edmonton streets when the fog blanket was at its heaviest.

PLANES LATE

The freak weather snarled plane schedules in and out of Edmonton.

Canadian Pacific's flight from Yellowknife, due at 6:20 last night was delayed until this morning. The flight to Whitehorse, scheduled to leave Edmonton at 11 p.m. took off shortly after 2 a.m. today when the fog lifted briefly.

Trans-Canada lines were hardest hit, with only one flight—the Edmonton to Vancouver run—leaving at 6:05 p.m. as scheduled.

Flight four, from Vancouver to Toronto, due here at 7:05 p.m. was unable to land.

All other flights were cancelled.

BOY INJURED

A traffic accident in Edmonton, occurring before the city was blanketed with fog, sent a seven-year-old boy to hospital, seriously injured, yesterday afternoon.

He is Lee Petrie, 9627-106A avenue who sustained a possible skull fracture when he ran into the side of a truck at 97 street and 106 avenue.

Driver of the truck, Steve Stark, 10518-97 street told police he saw a group of childrn standing on the street corner. One of them suddenly darted across the street.

Stark said he swerved his truck but the child ran into the side of the vehicle.

In the north there were a total of 3,006 prosecutions and convictions, compared with 1,571 for the Yukon and Northwest Territories in 1,143 under Federal statutes.

In the provinces the RCMP investigated 10 cases of attempted murder, 257 cases of arson; 2,515 cases of general assault; 328 cases of cattle stealing; 61 cases of manslaughter; 64 cases of robbery with violence; 41 safebreakings; 3,110 cases of breaking, entering and theft and 4,342 cases of general theft.

The convictions in the northland were not broken down as between natives and whites, who together number close to 17,000 throughout the Yukon and the Northwest Territories. Most of the white population is centred around the large towns, such as Whitehorse and Dawson City, Y.T., and Yellowknife N.W.T.

Farmer Delegates Support President

Veterans' Section Revolt Fails to Get Far In FUA

CALGARY, Dec. 9.—(CP)—Delegates to the annual convention of the Farmers' Union of Alberta yesterday passed a vote of confidence in the newly-elected president, Henry Young of Millet. Earlier, the veterans' section of the union had approved a resolution of non-confidence.

Mr. Young was elected president Thursday, succeeding Carl J. Stimpfle of Edmonton.

The veterans objected to Mr. Young for voting against a request for the resignation of director Frank E. Maricle of Hamlin, who was a delegate to the Red-tinged World Peace Congress.

Yesterday, Mr. Maricle gave a statement to the press challenging four board members to debate current world affairs on a public platform. His challenge was directed to Mr. Stimpfle, Mrs. R. B. Gunn of Furness, Sask., president of the Farm Women's Union of Alberta, Mrs. C. T. Armstrong of Hussar, and Karl Kapler of Strome.

These four criticized Mr. Maricle's connection with the Peace Congress during the convention, earlier this week.

LIMITED SCOPE

In moving the vote of confidence, Arthur Milsap of Lamont, said the veterans' section had been established only to deal with veterans' affairs, and anything they did had to come before the main organization.

Delegates, he said, had placed confidence in Mr. Young by electing him president. He objected to a section of the organization trying to run the union.

Three new members of the executive were elected yesterday. They are A. B. Wood of Dewberry, Mrs. C. T. Armstrong of Hussar, and A. R. Hadland of Baldonnell, B.C., block.

Constable Thwarts Entry, Shopbreaking Charge Laid

A man has been charged with shopbreaking following his capture by an alert constable early this morning.

George Kroesing, alias Crozier, no fixed address, was arrested by Constable E. J. Webber at 1:30 a.m. after he and a partner allegedly attempted to break into the David Grocery and Confectionery, 10666-97 street.

Webber said he spotted the pair attempting to climb through a six-foot high window at the rear of the store. One man was being boosted into the window at the time.

Webber yelled at them and the man boosting Kroesing let go of him and ran. Kroesing was caught after a short chase.

A small spindle punch, used in punching safes, was found nearby.

CAUGHT RED-HANDED

Two juveniles were also caught red-handed by an employe when they attempted to break into the Elm Park Service Station, 11704-127 avenue, early this morning.

Ronald Eagleson, 12777-126 street, was passing the station when he saw two youths running from it. He let himself in, hid and waited for the youths to return.

One juvenile entered the station by forcing a window and then let his confederate in through the front door. Eagleson turned on the lights, grabbed the pair and called police.

When questioned by police, the youths also admitted breaking into the Pool Hall, 12710-119 street, and stealing $34 of cigarettes and tobacco.

CIGARETTES TAKEN

Thieves also escaped with $15 in cigarettes early this morning when they entered the Norwood Table Supply, 11302-89 street.

Entry was gained by a basement delivery chute and tearing off a hasp and padlock on the inner door.

Charles Huxley, tenant above the store, notified police when he heard a noise.

SPOTTED THE CAR

Detectives spotted the car, stolen from S. W. Wnatynchuk, parked at 96 avenue and 106 street.

They hid in their car and saw a youth drive it away shortly afterwards. Following the car, they chased it through the city until the driver lost control near the CNR Station.

When the youth attempted to flee, he was caught and arrested.

The Five Dead Years

In instituting a survey to learn just how thousands of people live between the time they are retired at 65 and the time they get the old age pension at 70, the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council touches upon one of the pressing problems in the social life of Canada.

If the Council can suggest any method of mitigating the financial bleakness of these five dead years, or if it succeeds only in awakening the public and governmental conscience in regard to it, the Council will have performed an immense public service.

But while we are indebted to the Trades and Labor Council for initiating this movement, we should not forget that organized labor must bear some share of the responsibility for ousting men and women from the payroll at the age of 65.

The Bulletin has consistently supported the retirement of civic employees at the age of 65 without exception, not because we believe that most men and women lose their usefulness at 65, but because the rule has been made and if it is not rigidly observed, the entire system of pensions collapses.

Retirement at 65, under an adequate pension plan, is an admirable thing. And organized labor must be given credit for promoting it.

But along with the credit for securing retirement at 65 with a pension for many must go some responsibility for causing the retirement at 65 of many more who have no pension at all.

For industry and business have seized a little too eagerly upon the supposed principle that men and women should be unemployable at 65.

They forget that there is a great deal of difference between being pensionable at 65 and being useless at 65.

It is this confusion of thought that is chiefly responsible for the problem of the five empty and frantic years between 65 and 70.

Many men and women of 65 and even up to 75 or over have all their mental faculties and a great capacity for usefulness. Indeed, in some cases, the experiences and skills they have acquired at these ages make them invaluable. In others, of course, senility sets in at 30 or soon after.

But the robust septuagenarian is still an asset in business and industry.

Coupled with the effort to secure pensions for everybody at 65 and to reduce the limit of the old age pension to 65 without the means test, should be a serious attempt to induce employers of labor to find useful work for aged persons who are capable of doing it.

Idleness is no priceless gift.

First Fruits of November Vote

It may be the purest coincidence, but many Edmonton people will associate, with some unease, the fact that a multi-million dollar apartment hotel is being located by New York capital in Calgary with the earlier fact that harsh conditions imposed by the legislature caused Edmonton to give a pretty rough ride to New York capital that wanted to build the Miracle Mile here.

One would not go so far as to say that United States capital is boycotting Edmonton or deliberately avoiding investment in Edmonton.

But there is certainly the suspicion that American capital will think twice before putting money in a city that turned down a gift of $28,000,000.

Edmonton would have been the natural location for this palatial apartment hotel because Edmonton's population is considerably larger than that of Calgary and Edmonton's hotel space, per capita, is much smaller than that of Calgary.

One would have thought, then, that hotel capital seeking an investment would have looked here first.

But the negotiations have been opened with Calgary.

There must be a reason.

The Mission of Jesus Christ

We have seen that Jesus Christ is the incarnation of the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, perfect God as touching His relationship to God the Father and perfect man as touching His relation to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The second question to be answered in this Advent season is this:

Why did the Son of God leave His heavenly home and assume human form and dwell for 33 years among men?

In a sense, the mission of God's Son on earth was threefold:

1. To reveal the Father to mankind.

Both Matthew and Luke have recorded these words of Jesus:

"All things have been delivered to Me of My Father; and no one knoweth the Son save the Father; neither doth any know the Father save the Son and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal Him."

Christ's mission on earth, then, was to make God known to men, to enable them, in seeing Him, to see the Father, to enable them, in learning His will, to learn the Father's will.

2. To atone for the sins of mankind by giving, as perfect man, His life upon the Cross to redeem men from the condemnation inherent in their imperfection.

The chief barrier between God and man is sin and both the religious instinct and all human experience recognize that man cannot of himself remove that barrier.

Reconciliation with God is only possible through penitence. The incarnate Son of God, as head of the human race and as responsible for it, renders to God adequate sorrow for the sins of the world and gives individual men, through their union with Him, grace to attain deeper and deeper penitence until, in the end, their penitence will become perfect and acceptable to God.

3. To open the gates of heaven to the human race.

The God-Man lived in His human body and was resurrected in His human body and ascended into heaven in His human body.

The union of the human and the divine in Christ enabled human flesh to overcome death and to enter heaven.

Since Christ, as perfect man, is all men, this union enables all men to overcome death and enter heaven through their belief in Christ.

Food For Thought

Editor, Bulletin — This reader obtained "food for thought" from the feature story on your editorial page, stating that, among other things, "Scientists Foresee Abundance" (and) "Freedom from Soil."

I was particularly intrigued by this paragraph, showing the displacement potentialities in our industrial progress: "In fact, it was in the '70s of last century that there were vast indigo plantations in India, China, the West Indies, France and Germany. These have been replaced by a few factories which produce a cheap, satisfactory synthetic indigo."

Other examples of the above trend occur to this reader—like nitrates, rubber, plastics, nylon, rayon fabrics, and many other technological achievements — often imposed by war! There is the old saying that "Necessity does everything well." Undoubtedly, this whole tedency is in line with man's insatiable yen for progress, and in today's terms, "going places."

I would like, however, to bring the above global preview of the nutritional road ahead down to a better focus. I see that the above writer (Jacob Rosin in "Chemical and Engineering News") believes that: "Chemistry is going to free us eventually from our dependence upon raw materials—however basic they may appear now."

This latter point, somehow, reminded me of the desirability of making sure that, in discovering the new processes, we don't do ourselves more damage than good. I am convinced that there is a time element in our technological processes which will be forgotten at our peril. The problem of atomic energy may, I think, be put forward here as the latest "horrible example"—where man's material achievements have, definitely, outrun the development of his spirit and character.

A strictly local application of this same tendency occurs to me. A dozen strategically located margarine factories accross Canada, I am assured, could supply the total needs of our population. They would employ 45,000 workers; but they would also ruin our dairy farmers. That doesn't look very smart business!

Eggs-Plantation Wanted

Editor, Bulletin—If 100 hens lay 60 eggs per day and the ration costs $4.50 per 100 pounds — the selling price of eggs or feed cost per dozen is 24 cents, or two cents an egg.

Why does the consumer have to pay six cents an egg ? ? Thank you for an eggs planation.

You're Welcome

Editor, Bulletin—I have been requested by the Parish Guild of Holy Trinity Church to thank you for the kind publicity given at all times during the past year to the activities of the Guild and particularly for that accorded to their bazaar on Dec. 1st, which was very much appreciated.

Worried About Rents

Editor, Bulletin—When controls were lifted we heard a great deal of talk about prices levelling off and building up a surplus of goods until we were back to normal again. But controls have been off for some time now and each time I go to the store it seems everything is up a cent, and seem pointed higher.

Isn't it time we started thinking about what is going to happen when our leases are up in May and rent control is no longer in effect? My landlord tells me he can get thirty to forty dollars more a month and so many of my friends have been told the same thing that we are really worried. It isn't a question of whether or not he is entitled to it—and in the majority of cases he is not—but of where we are going to get the money to pay it and where can we move to if we don't pay it?

Don't you think it is about time our women's clubs and all others who are interested in welfare work started agitating for a renewal of controls? If we all write to our members of parliament and let them know how we feel and all really get behind it instead of just grumbling to ourselves, we might get something done.

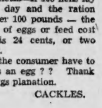
The Father is greater than I.—John 14:28.

THE VOICE OF ONE

By DR. FRANK S. MORLEY

Fighting Faith Needed To Defend Democracy

The sympathy of the democratic world goes whole-heartedly to the United States in the crusade for freedom, South Korea threatens to become another Corregidor or Dunkirk. Trotsky said a true thing: "Any one desiring a quiet life has done badly to be born in the twentieth century."



MORLEY

Our policy has been one of vacillation and uncertainty. We refused to support Chiang and now we refuse to recognize the victor, Mao. Democratic leadership is in a state of mental bewilderment.

We have given pitifully little attention to the ideological content in the conflict with Communism except to talk vacuously about "our way of life." We don't know what constitutes democracy. The average citizen doesn't believe anything.

Communists, on the contrary, begin with the ideological element. In China they indoctrinated urban intelligentsia and sent this fanatical youth into the country to recruit and organize the peasantry. There was abundant revolutionary material in the break-up of the old family system, the emancipation of women and youth, the awful poverty of a tyrannical people, the growth of national pride, and the hatred of imperialism.

Same Methods In Indo-China

In Indo-China, similarly, the intelligentsia has been mobilized in an anti-imperialist, pro-nationalist campaign which has been strong enough to resist the best French efforts since 1946 and has cost 200 billion francs in 1950. If we fail to hold South Korea at least, Indo-China will go quickly.

This is hard for us to understand. Jacques Soustelle in Foreign Affairs describes the vast beneficial work of the French government. People have been given freedom and citizenship, civil strife ended, enormous public works were constructed, 3,053 kilometers of railroads, 5,000 kilometers of canals, 32,000 kilometers of roads, 16,000 kilometers of telephone lines, and 1,000 hospitals and sanitary centres, while the peasant has been free from ruinous taxation and a system of farm credit established. Should not the program of enlightened social reform have won Indo-Chinese gratitude?

The attempt of Communism has been its ability to co-ordinate every element of living into a pattern of fighting faith. We have regarded war as an aberration and looked forward to "a return to normalcy." The Communist regarded war as an integral part of life.

This is not so barbaric as it sounds. Toynbee demonstrates in his "Study" the obvious truth that once society ceases to struggle against the jungle, the jungle will overwhelm it.

Asia And Imperialism

It is ironic that Asia is falling into the grip of an imperialism more awful than anything she has ever known. Like other Marxist doctrines, the idea of discarding the old fashioned power politics Russia has abandoned.

"Even a certain forceful annexation or impoverishment of small crippled nations by the great nations of civilization was held by Marx and Engels justified under certain conditions." Thus Communists argue now in the quarrel with Tito, "The touchstone of a man's progressiveness is his attitude toward the Soviet Union."

Unless we can enlist the minds and hearts and souls of people to defend a faith we are lost. In free democracies there is an ideological vacuum. Especially is this vacuum evident in our universities. Our writers and artists are without depth and insight because they are without a faith.

Surely we should not have an autarchy of opinion to which all must conform or be persecuted. We have far too much of that. I believe just the opposite. But without passion, without dynamic idealism, without great loyalty, without vision of the good society, we shall not be able to withstand Communism either in Asia or Europe, or—finally—in Canada.

ODDS AND ENDS

By Harold L. Weir

North American Indians Are Victims of Sentiment

I see by the paper (for I do take a paper, you know) that the United States government may have to shell out more than fifteen billion dollars to a group of western Indians who had their tribal lands taken away from them about a hundred years ago.

WEIR

It seems that these Indians, aided and abetted by sentimentalists, have got themselves all steamed up over the great injustice that has been done them by the whites.

And so they demand payment in full for their lands. The supreme court of the United States is looking into the matter right now.

What everybody seems to have overlooked is that the value of any property is entirely contingent upon the improvements introduced by the whites.

Without roads, bridges, dams, cultivation, markets, railways and other devices of civilization, this land would probably be worth about as much as the island of Manhattan which is said to have been sold by the Indians for $8.35 plus a case of watered rum.

I am not anti-Indian by any means.

But I think our red brothers have a terrific crust to come horsing around with a demand like this when their land wouldn't have been worth a tinker's dam without the developments initiated by the white settlers.

I don't believe the Indians would have thought of it, either, had they not been wept over by those mangy Galahads who go galloping about the country looking for something or somebody to champion.

Professional Robin Hoods

For there are people, you know, who conceive it to be their pious duty to make other people discontented.

They come around to an Indian or anybody else and begin telling him how downtrodden he is until, in a frenzy of self-pity, he begins suit against the government or some other equally futile performance.

Now I can't say that I am deeply concerned about whether Uncle Sam has to cough up this fourteen billion dollars or not.

But I am concerned about this sentimental approach to the aboriginal problem because the sentimentalists are doing as much harm to the Indians in Canada as they are doing to the Indians in the United States.

I am all in favor of justice to the Indians.

I think they should have the same medical services and the same educational facilities as are offered to the whites.

I think the Indian child should have exactly the same opportunities as are enjoyed by the white child.

But when it comes to subscribing to the theory that we sort of bought this country from the Indians at 1950 values and that the Indians have got to eat at the public trough from now on, please count me out.

Treaty Money

I think the idea of reservations and treaty money and all the rest of it are utter nonsense and utterly iniquitous, not from our own standpoint, but from the standpoint of the Indians.

When we gave the Indians the chance to lead an idle and unproductive life into uncounted generations, we worked a calamitous injustice upon them.

The Indians, on the whole, are a capable, intelligent and adaptable people.

When we give them a chance to load away their lives on reservations and treaty money, we merely debauch them. We debauch them as completely as we would debauch all Canadians if we placed the entire nation on the dole.

The reservation and treaty money set-up is based on the proposition that Indians should have the right to live the same life their ancestors lived a hundred and five hundred years ago.

Why should the Indians have this special right?

Nobody else has it.

You never hear of the descendants of Saxons in Kent suing the Norman house of Lords for the restoration of free mead.

You never hear of people of ancient British blood sending a petition to the Romans to give them back their woad, although that may not be an entirely fair comparison since modern ladies dip their nice silver hair in the bluing bucket and get much the same effect.

The white population of Canada has felt the impact of what we jokingly call progress and nobody in his right mind would want to live the life his grandfather lived seventy or more years ago.

It is ridiculous to assume that the Indian should be protected from this impact.

To assume it is to pretend that time can be made to stand still.

And nobody that I know of has been able to work that trick since Joshua.

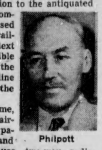
Investigation of Two-Way Radio Urged for Trains

A professor writes urging two-way radio equipment for all trains:

"The recent tragic collision on the CNR north of Kamloops draws attention to the antiquated means of communication used by the railroads. The next day, the terrible wreck on the Long Island line reinforced the message.



Philpott

"In this time, when ships, aircraft, state patrol cars and even taxis use two-way radio communication, what excuse is there for trains carrying several hundred passengers or millions of dollars' worth of freight being out of contact with their control centres for long periods of time?"

The professor is an expert on such means of communication. He has in his own lab, he says, several aircraft receiver-transmitters, obtained from war surplus. These are primitive compared with later models. But even the ones he has could have averted the tragedy of the CNR crash.

Some Should Still Be Written

The professor delves at some length into the technical questions involved. He shows that there is no real reason why two-way radio could not operate from end to trains.

"Every train should carry a radio 'shack,' he argues. If it is economic for an aircraft with 20 passengers to be so equipped, the cost should not be considered prohibitive.

My friend makes it clear he is not urging abolition of the present system of written communications.

"Printed instructions should still be given to train crews, as is current practice. But in addition, despatchers should, at short intervals, make regular radio contact with all trains in their divisions."

Every time the railroads ask for higher rates, howls of opposition go up from coast to coast. We all know what happened when the recent national railroad strike took place. That hinged around the question: "What can the railroads afford to pay?"

No Quibbling About Price

The cost of equipping our trains with two-way radio would be considerable. But who would seriously argue that the cost overbalances the saving of life and limb and property?

The real question for the railroads must surely be:

"Would modern two-way radio communication make for safer, better railroad service?"

If the answer to that question is "yes," then surely a strong, rich country like Canada is not going to haggle or quibble about the initial cost.

When Sir Henry Thornton began to experiment with diesel engines in Canada, some of the papers lambasted him as a spendthrift.

Now everyone in this country knows that the coal-burning locomotive is going the way the wood-burner went.

Surely anyone who looks ahead a few years must realize that the great revolution in communications—called radio—is going to affect railroad operation.

Used Now In Taxicabs

Nobody believes that we will indefinitely ride to train stations in taxicabs equipped with two-way radio—then board trains still using only nineteenth century communication.

The real question is one of time. I think the professor is right in saying "now."

As between train wrecks and train radio, there is only one answer.

BIGGEST SINCE ROCKIES

Railway to Ungava Iron Ranks as Historic Job

By MARC E. THIVIERGE

What construction men call the biggest pioneering enterprise since the Canadian Pacific Railway crossed the Rocky Mountains is underway in the remote village of Sept Iles, on Quebec's north shore.

A construction company (Cartier, Mannix, Morrison, Knudsen) has beach-landed more than $10,000,000 worth of road-building and railway construction equipment at Sept Iles, gateway to the rich mining fields of Ungava.

"Operation Ungava Railroad" got underway when the firm started to land its first of several dozen tractors, trucks, cranes, and a multitude of other special machinery from freighters and warsurplus landing barges self-propelled or tug pulled.

The project is under the direction of a jovial, rough-and-ready American contractor, Carl Collett. His job is to build the 350-mile railroad from here to Knob Lake, an (Hollinger North shore Explorations company) iron ore centre.

Collett's main worry was to get the material off the ships before the closing of navigation and then send it deep into New Quebec's wilderness, ready for use in the road-building and railroad construction projects.

In the few weeks he has been here, he has landed $10,000,000 worth of machinery, built several camps, roads and railroad paths totalling more than 100 miles within 25 miles of a temporary airfield 25 miles east of here.

Jack Little, in charge of the operation for the iron-hunting firm, said he expected Collett's crews would soon be between 80 to 90 miles of highways ready to move railroad building equipment northward during the winter months.

Before the railroad reaches Knob Lake after passing through Labrador, Collett and his men will have worked across 350 miles of bush, muskeg, several rivers and two high mountain ranges.

The workers move north like an army, and like an army caterers follow them on to ahead preparing the camp for the following day.

Messing and catering is looked after by a catering company (Dominion Catering) under the management here of Wilfred Mallory, a veteran of similar jobs, who recently completed a large scale operation in Alberta.

Mallory and his staff used more than $70,000 worth of food in six weeks of navigation and then send it deep into New Quebec's wilderness, ready for use in the road-building and railroad construction projects.

Food comes by the ton and carload.

"It usually takes one man on my staff to feed ten men on any job of this size," Mallory said.

THE MESSAGE

WHERE is GOD?

"My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me 'where is thy God?' "
—Psalm 42.3.

This heartbroken cry must come from a man who is sorely troubled. He himself believed in God and the power of God, his belief was the only thing that made life tolerable and at all endurable. Somehow he had become discouraged for in time of need God had not manifested Himself to save His people and this man's enemies and neighbors were mocking his faith with the ever-reiterated sneering question "Where is thy God?"

He felt himself to be in an awkward position—in the slang of our day—he was very much "on the spot."

His tormentors came day after day and said "where is the God of whom you have told us and in whom you believe. It is all nonsense this talk about the providence of God.

"If He were all that you claim Him to be He would never have allowed these things to happen to you and to us. Why, no decent man, let alone a God would leave His people without a sign. Aye, where is your God?"

The words have a familiar ring, for we have all heard the same question in any time of crisis. Whenever trouble comes to a man or nation, people who in all probability have never thought about God in any serious way, immediately become concerned about what God is going to do to help them out of the present difficulty.

It does not matter to them that the trouble in which they find themselves is the result of their own stupid or criminal neglect of present duty. When trouble comes they seek to get from under their responsibility by blaming God and asking why He does not come to help them.

Many people are asking this question today in our present crisis. What they forget is that the trouble we find ourselves in, is largely of our own making.

Let us first acknowledge the place He should have in our lives, individual and national. Let us turn again to Him in humble repentance and serve Him and we shall find that by obeying His law and walking in His way that He has not forgotten and will not forget His own.

Here is the answer. Through the thickening mists of doubt and fear, above the noisy questioning of the mob, comes the still small voice of God 'Hope thou.'

When all else fails and we need something to which we may cling and in which we may really believe, then try belief in the goodness of God.

Face up honestly to your own life with all its shortcomings and weaknesses and find in Him the sure refuge in all time of trouble. "Lord I believe, Help Thou mine unbelief."

Aged Woman Back at College

SALT LAKE CITY—(UP)—Two University of Utah co-eds prove that education can flourish at 71 or 16.

The 71-year-old is Mrs. Ella Shipp Musser, who is enrolled in speech, typing and English classes. The youngest student registered is 16-year-old Alice Aramaki.

Miss Aramaki has her sights set on a government job, particularly foreign service. Her major is French.

Mrs. Musser is a member of the first class graduated at the university.

"It's wonderful to be back in school to absorb the quick, eager ideas and thoughts of young people," she said.

The cathedral choirs of Hereford, Gloucester and Worcester have been combined in church music festivals since the 18th century.

Rhee Decree Fails

SEOUL, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The national assembly failed yesterday to raise a quorum to ratify President Syngman Rhee's decree of martial law. Transportation difficulties were blamed. Another try will be made today.

Fresh Eggs will keep fresh quite a while if pure white vinegar is rubbed on them.

Noise Is Enemy Of Human Nerves

NEW YORK—(UP)—Noise probably is the worst enemy of the nervous system, in the opinion of Dr. Walter B. Cannon, a researcher in the field.

Honking horns, grinding truck motors and machinery and office equipment he reports, have been known to put enough strain on the nervous system to turn fairly normal people in confirmed neurotics.

"Loud sounds," Dr. Cannont noted, "disturb the appetite and digestion and are entirely capable of completely halting the normal rhythms of the stomach."

Heathen Customs Revealed in Film

Bible Institute Official Shows Picture Made In South America

Heathen customs hidden in South American jungles and a monkey killed, cooked and eaten are a few of the dramatic sequences of a new 16 mm sound-color film, "To Every Creature," to be shown in First Presbyterian church at 8 p.m. Monday.

Filmed and recorded on a recent trip to South America by Dr. Irwin Moon, director of the Los Angeles branch of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, "To Every Creature" is a fresh approach to missionary activities.

These Indian tribes, shown as they exist without help, hope, and God, have received a message from missionaries that has changed hearts and transformed lives; but the work could be multiplied by modern transportation and communication.

"To Every Creature" demonstrates this by actual stories of missionaries who suffered great hardships and narrowly escaped death in canoes and on jungle trails.

Other sequences show the real help modern communications and planes give to the pioneer mission workers.

"To Every Creature" emphasizes training missionary technicians as pilots, and for maintenance repair, communication and photography work on the mission field.

These subjects are included in the new missionary technical training course at Moody Bible Institute.

With these technical specialists on hand, others trained in Bible work can devote more time to preaching and teaching the natives.

Nativity Play Slated For St. John's

Under the direction of Mrs. Paul Greenwood, "A Play of Our Lord's Nativity," will be presented in St. John's Anglican Church on Thursday and Friday evenings, Dec. 14 and 15 at 8:00 p.m.

This play based on the Old Coventry Nativity Play, was recently re-written by a Canadian playwright, Robertson Davies, especially for use in churches.

It was first presented in St. George's Anglican Church, Peterborough Ont., under the direction of the author himself, some two years ago.

It comprises a total cast of some 21 players.

Among those taking part will be Farham Howarth, Miss J. Pilcher, Mrs. D. J. Ford, Arthur Cook, D. Sims, and L. G. Thomas.

The choir will be under the direction of Mr. Bob Hoare.

SECURITY FOR ALL IS CHRIST SCIENCE TOPIC

How complete security and protection are available to all will be made plain in Christian Science churches tomorrow.

The subject is "God the Preserver of Man."

The Lesson-Sermon includes the following selections:

"And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands." (Acts 12: 7), "The power of God brings deliverance to the captive. No power can withstand divine Love." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 224).

OTTAWA, Dec. 9.—(CP)—The Netherlands flower dealers are going to invade the Canadian market by air. A Netherlands embassy official said yesterday that the first shipment of fresh-cut flowers—lilacs—from his country will reach Canada next week.

Coyotes Devour Almost Anything

MOSCOW, Ida.—(UP)—Things have to be mighty bad before a coyote goes hungry.

A federal-state co-operative wildlife research unit at the University of Idaho reports coyotes eat anything from porcupines to pieces of cloth (red).

They report that coyotes in those mountains had eaten: Grouse, hawks, various other birds, snakes, marmots, chipmunks, tree squirrels, beetles, grasshoppers, ticks, weasels, porcupines, pocket gophers, mountain goat, ground nuts, needles of various conifers, leaves of shrubs, grass, twigs, rocks, clay and even bits of red cloth.

Coal Dry Cleaner Now In Operation

BRAS D'OR, N.S., Dec. 9.—(CP)—Mines Minister McKinnon of Nova Scotia yesterday pressed a button that started what he termed the first coal "dry cleaner" in Canada.

The machine is installed at the independently-owned Bras d'Or Coal Company's Franklin mine in this Cape Breton village. Weighing 45,000 pounds, it cleans coal through a system using air-blown sand. Traditional methods are far more cumbersome.

Plans for Buildings Discussed by Division

SEDGEWICK, Dec. 9—In the first of two meetings this month, trustees of Killam School Division went over tentative plans for new school buildings with Patrick Campbell-Hope, divisional architect.

Mr. Campbell-Hope was instructed to prepare provisional plans for a six-room school at Sedgewick, a school with six rooms and a typing room for Strome, a four-room junior-senior high school, with laboratory and typing room, for Alliance, and a similar school for Heisler. At Heisler, however, only two classrooms will be completed to begin with. It is also intended to add another classroom to the Killam school.

At its regular meeting the board set January 13 as election day in the Daysland sub-division, where the present incumbent, W. E. Campbell, Dayslands, will contest the trusteeship with C. Berry, also of Daysland.

Other business of the meeting included sale of the barn and outbuildings at South Bend School, and sale of the Asquith schoolhouse. The secretary was instructed to inform the department of education that the board favored the continuance of teacher-training bursaries on present lines, and would offer eight next year.

Camper Bags Giant Bear

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Dec. 9—Large bear has been shot in the territory west of Rocinui, 30 miles southwest of Rocky.

For months, Jack Bugbee has seen signs of a big bear around his lumber camp in the mountains but could not get close enough to try shooting it. On Thursday, bruin became bolder and walked into the camp. Mr. Bugbee got a shot at it, but owing to an injured hand, he only wounded it. Knowing that a wounded bear is very dangerous and doubting he could manage to kill it with his hand in splints, he went out to his ranch, 10 miles east and got his son George, and Roger Rose to go back with him. They tracked the bear and were able to kill it.

While it was not as large as the Kodiak bear George Bugbee shot last fall, the largest one ever killed in North America, this one is a huge bear, far larger than the average one seen around the lumber camps.

HIGH RIVER, Alta.—(CP)— In a bold concession to the fact their numbers are dwindling, the High River pioneers and old-timers association voted to open membership to sons and daughters of the pioneers. Previously qualifications were settlement before 1901.

Aklavik Legion Opens New Hall

Only Legion Branch in Arctic Dedicates Own Memorial Hall

AKLAVIK, N.W.T., Dec. 9—Only branch of the Canadian Legion north of the Artic Circle, Aklavik post No. 220 officially opened its own Memorial Hall recently.

Constructed by 30 members, the new building is the result of several years work in raising money locally to give the branch their own headquarters.

The building is made from shiplap from local lumber covered outside with brick siding and lined with fir plywood. It is 44 by 20 feet, with a stage at one end and a dressing room on either side. Entire cost was raised by members, with the exception of a $25 donation from the Montgomery Branch in Edmonton.

OPENING DAY

On the official opening day, a service was held in the studio of CHAK, Aklavik, broadcasting over a radius of 300 miles, conducted by Clarence S. Bell and the Padre, Canon C. R. Montgomery, brother of Field Marshall Montgomery.

Following the service, members marched to the new hall, headed by the Legion flag. Here the administrator of Aklavik, Peter Parker, cut the ribbon across the doorway of the hall.

The flag was raised by William Carson, manager of Hudson's Bay Company here, and the hall was dedicated by Canon Montgomery.

Hard Head!

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Dec. 8—Terry Gillis, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gillis, took a head dive through the showcase window in the general store in Saunders and escaped without a scratch.

The show case glass was broken in dozens of pieces.

Winter Winner In Winter Vote

JASPER, Dec. 9—Jasper Skating Rink bank account is richer by $300, the result of a dance and carnival queen candidate contest sponsored by Jasper Winter Carnival Committee.

When votes were counted at the dance top honors went to Barbara Winter of the school student's union, and Bernice Thresher, BPOE entry. These two young ladies will compete against each other and any out-of-town entries for Queen of the Winter Carnival Feb. 5-11.

Now that financial difficulties have been overcome the skating rink will soon be in operation. Further plans for money raising include a moccasin dance in the rink on Dec. 16.

CIVIL WAR cavalryman turned preacher is Joel McCrea in MGM's latest outdoor drama, "Stars in My Crown," opening today at Empress Theatre. Picture, which tells story of a two-fisted parson whose whisper speaks louder than six-guns, features Ellen Drew in leading feminine role and strong supporting cast of popular performers.

Joel McCrea Plays Parson In New Movie at Empress

"Stars in My Crown," new MGM drama opening today at the Empress, stars Joel McCrea and a cast of screen favorites in an action-filled story of a two-fisted parson whose whisper spoke louder than a six-gun.

McCrea, inseparably associated with outdoor roles, plays the Civil War cavalryman turned preacher, who brings law and order, love and laughter to a small Southern community.

Appearing opposite the star is Ellen Drew, who portrays the unsung heroine, the housewife and the gentle power behind many a man's success. As their little ward is Dean Stockwell, popular juvenile star, who recently scored high in "The Secret Garden."

He contributes much of the laughter to the story.

SUPPORTING CAST

An outstanding supporting cast features Alan Hale, Lewis Stone, Juan Hernandez, who won wide critical praises for his performance in "Intruder in the Dust," Charles Kemper and Connie Gilchrist.

The picture's subsidiary romance features James Mitchell, recruited to films after his success on the Broadway stage, and Amanda Blake, another talented newcomer, who makes her screen debut in the role of a pretty school teacher.

"Stars in My Crown" was directed by Jacques Tourneur and produced by William H. Wright, whose productions vary from that of the romantic comedy "The Bride Goes Wild" to the dramatic "Act of Violence."

Car Price Control Seen

OTTAWA, Dec. 9—(CP)—Trade Minister Howe said in an interview yesterday that he will give consideration to prevention of unusually high boosts in Canadian car prices.

He was commenting on a Washington despatch which said the economic stabilization agency in Washington has asked two American car companies to suspend price increases announced this week.

The request went out to the General Motors Corporation and the Ford Motor Company. Seven other major car makers were requested to withhold any price raises they may contemplate until the agency can examine and determine "the entire question of prices."

Mr. Howe said he would consider the impact of the American action on the Canadian price situation and give thought to prevention of unnecessary boosts.

He has been granted power to control prices of any item that goes into defence production through the Essential Materials (defence) Act passed at the last session of Parliament.

Marshall Asks National Unity

NEW YORK, Dec. 9—(AP)—Defence Secretary George Marshall last night called for national unity and every effort to prevent the Korean conflict from deteriorating into a "dreadful" World War. "The Chinese Communist intervention in Korea has deliberately challenged the United Nations," Marshall said in a speech to the Congress of American Industry.

LLOYD STRIP GETS NAME

LLOYDMINSTER, Dec. 8—Executive of Lloydminster Board of Trade decided to name Lloydminster's new airport "Chapman Field" in honor of R. G. Chapman, through whose efforts the airport was developed to a reality.

Lloydminster is now served with a scheduled flight connecting Saskatoon and Edmonton. At the present time it is a three day a week service. But as soon as business warrants it, a daily service may be inaugurated.

Clay Factory Walkout Over

MEDICINE HAT, Dec. 9—(CP)—Sixty employes of Alberta Clay Products Ltd., went back to work yesterday, after a three-day walkout.

The men left their jobs over application of the Rand formula. The union claimed the company did not put into effect an arbitration board's recommendation calling for the formula. It requires all employes to pay union dues even if they are not union members.

Israel Accepts Swedish Plan

EDMONTON, Dec. 9—Total receipts for this week: cattle, 2,599; calves, 704; hogs, 3,277; sheep, 144.

The moderate receipts on the Edmonton cattle market this week have been largely of plain killers and replacements. The upper grades in all killing classes have found a ready demand at values about $1 higher than the previous week's close. Packer and order buyers have given the market strong support and a good week end clearance is assured.

Fed calves are 50 cents higher at 26.50 to 27.50 for choice grade; good to choice butcher steers of all weights about $1 higher at 26.00 to 28.00; butcher heifers in these grades are 50 cents to $1 higher at 24.50 to 26.50. Cows have been unevenly $1 to $1.50 higher most of the week, closing at 20.00 to 21.00 for good butchers and 18.50 to 19.50 for mediums. Good weighty bologna bulls are a full $1 higher at 21.00 to 23.50.

A steady demand for stockers and feeders has held the market steady with last week's quotations of 24 to 25.50 for good feeder and good stocker sters. Common feeder steers bring 19 to 22. Stock heifers 18 to 21 and stock cows 16 to 17.50.

Veal calves are selling strong at 28 to 30 for good handyweights while choice lightweights bring 30 to 32.

The hog market has advanced to 31.75 Grade A for shipment, a rise of $1.25 over last week's close. A drastically lower trend is rumored but Friday's receipts are being weighed at the above price. Sows and stags are 50c higher at 19.50 and 15 respectively liveweight. Feeder hogs are bringing 23 to 25 per cwt.

Short supplies have held butcher lambs steady at 25 to 26 off trucks and 26 to 28 off cars for good handyweights. Feeder lambs are quoted 24 to 27 and butcher sheep 6 to 12 per cwt. Buck lambs discounted $1.00 per cwt.

Hot Spot Yields Armament Ore

World's Largest Tantalite Deposits In Australia

SYDNEY, Australia.—(CP)—The world's largest deposits of high grade tantalite, a metal ore used to toughen armaments, are at Wodgins and two smaller mines nearby, 900 miles north of Perth. There the temperatures range up to 120 degrees in the shade in the height of summer.

It was 25 years ago that a man sidled up to Lady Moulden, then Australia's wealthiest woman, at the Adelaide racetrack and whispered a tip which led to development of the mine.

In the Second World War tantalite from Wodgins, worth $8,000 a ton raw, was flown by air express to the United States. There smelting produced one ton of refined tantalum from every two tons of ore.

Australia in those days could not smelt the tantalite itself because it did not have the equipment. Now, however, a company is being formed with the backing of the Western Australia state government and the Commmonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organization.

OTHER PRODUCTS

It will build smelters near Perth to treat the ore and sell the refined tantalum to all the democracies. The new plant also will extract Columbium, Caesium and Beryllium.

Columbium is used in stainless and chromium steels to prevent decay and add toughness. Caesium is used in the manufacture of photo-electric cells. Beryllium is harder than tool steel and nearly as light as magnesium. In an alloy with copper, it is non-sparking and is valuable for tools used in gasworks or oil refineries. It is used in X-ray tubes and as a source for neutrons in bombarding uranium in one stage of the production of atomic energy.

HEAP SQUAW HEAP SAFE

THE PAS, Man. — (CP) — Once the first thin ice of the freeze-up forms on the Saskatchewan River here, Indians forsake the white man's catwalk bridge for the shorter — and, for them, safer — ice trail.

The ice first forms in a thin tortuous trail between open water because the river currents are not yet subdued by winter's iron grip.

Sometimes a 200-pound squaw will make the first crossing. The other Indians stay on shore until she has opened the trail.

Newest Words May Die Soon

NEW YORK (UP)—Funk and Wagnalls' fall supplement lists about 150 new words that are in current use but whose future is doubtful.

Among them are: atomshik—advocate of atomic warfare, applied by the Soviet newspaper Pravda to certain American statesmen and military men; alayam—sweet potato cocktail snack developed by the U.S. agriculture department; beef-cake—display of manly pulchitude, like a barrel chest.

Brink—one million, in numorous allusion to the Brink robbery in Boston; butterlegger—one who tries to palm off oleomargarine as butter; earowner—a prospect for radio advertising; grabbit—a boarder; selevator — automatic self-service elevator.

Good Reasons To Toss Gun In Ashcan

SALT LAKE CITY—(UP)—No one can blame W. F. Hendrickson for giving up hunting. In his opinion you can get killed without half trying.

While Hendrickson was hunting, a rifle slug snapped through the brush around him and he ducked for cover. More slugs came at him, all luckily missing.

"Finally," Hendrickson said, "I was able to stop the guy who was firing. I demanded to know why all the shooting at me."

This is the answer Hendrickson got:

"It was just a mistake," the wild-firing hunter explained. "I have a doe permit and I haven't a doe or a buck, so I was just shooting at everything that moved, hoping to get one or the other."

The hopeful hunter said he was sorry.

Holy Year Cross Seen 25 Miles

SHERBROOKE, Que., Dec 9 — (CP) — Without ceremony, the lights were turned on last night on Sherbrooke's 110-foot Holy Year cross. The cross, constructed at a cost of $10,000 and reputed to be the highest on the continent, is illuminated with red and green tubular lighting and on clear nights will be visible for 25 miles.

It stands 70 feet above a 40-foot base, and is one of the many that have been built throughout Quebec to commemorate Holy Year.

Latoski Returns Against Regina

Steve Latoski, the in-again-out-again member of the Flyers, will see action tonight when the locals take on Regina's hardluck Caps at the Gardens in a Western Canada Hockey league offering.

Knee injure suffered by centre Elmer Kreller, as Flyers edged Saskatoon Quakers 2-1 in the Hub City Thursday, gave Latoski his chance to get back into the line-up.

He'll centre a line, between Roy Heximer and Fred Smitten.

X-rays taken yesterday morning following Flyers arrival home, confirmed earlier reports that Kreller had suffered torn knee ligaments. He was under a doctor's care yesterday, will take daily treatments for the next while.

Flyers' manager — coach Frank Currie reported last week that defenceman Bill Pettinger, who injured his back two weeks ago, is "coming along slowly."

George Allen, recently appointed coach of Caps, will be in charge of their visitors. The Reginans dropped another close one at Calgary last night, score being 3-1.

Time Out

By Dick Beddoes

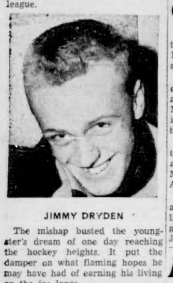
A CHRISTMAS STORY

Whoa friend, pause here for a second . . .

Take Time Out to glance over a story which has a kind of Christmasy twist to it . . .

It's a story about a young Edmonton hockey player named Jimmy Dryden. He is a 17-year-old youngster who had dreams of one day chasing pucks under hockey's Big Tent in the National Hockey league.

But one night this winter Jimmy Dryden lost his right eye while playing for Medicine Hat Tigers of the Western Canada Junior Hockey league.



JIMMY DRYDEN

The mishap busted the youngster's dream of one day reaching the hockey heights. It put the damper on what fleeting hopes he may have had of earning his living on the ice lanes.

But some folks in Medicine Hat who have learned that lesson about being their brother's keeper, rallied on Jimmy Dryden's behalf.

A committee, spearheaded by Bruce Hogle of the Medicine Hat Daily News, organized a benefit hockey game for him. It will be played in the 'Hat Tuesday between a WCJHL all-star team and the Lethbridge Maple Leafs, Canada's representatives to the world hockey games.

Hogle and his helpers didn't stop in their own back yard, though. For instance, they solicited—and received—mementos and gifts from New York Rangers, Toronto Maple Leafs, Detroit Red Wings and Chicago Black Hawks of the N.H.L.

Cheques of $100 were volunteered by the Medicine Hat Ladies of the Moose and the Medicine Hat town council.

Moose Jaw Canucks of the WCJHL contributed 116 iron men to the young man's cause.

Cash donations from villages and towns throughout the southland flowed into the Dryden Fund.

And racket sales to the benefit game have flourished like never before in the 'Hat's history.

Thus, it is with considerable gratitude that Hogle's committee announced this week that its objective of $3,000 would be handsomely exceeded. . . .

★ ★ ★

But wait, that's not quite all, friend. . . .

For, so far as is known, nothing has been done here to assist Jimmy Dryden.

And Edmonton is his home town.

True, he lost his eye on foreign ice, so to speak. And he went there against the wishes of the Edmonton Athletic Club, the organization which nurtured him through minor hockey ranks.

Also, you cannot make donations to all the causes to which you are asked to contribute in these inflationary times.

But maybe you have som spare change which is lying around in your pants pocket. Maybe it is some you won't miss.

If you won't miss it, why not send it along to Bruce Hogle, c-o the Medicine Hat News, to swell the Jimmy Dryden Fund?

Might make it a Merrier Christmas for him—and you. . . .

Whipper Bill Comes Back

'Whipper Billy' Watson returns to the rasslin' ring at the Stock Pavilion Tuesday, after an absence of nearly a year.

Promoter Al Oeming has matched the popular Toronto mat ace against Al (Krusher) Korman, the Montreal menace. They will clash in 'the main' event, a 60-minute, two-out-of-three falls test.

All in all maestro Oeming has put together a pretty good show. Steve and Earl McCready take on Frank Marconi and Ivan Kamaroff in an Australian tag-team match.

The special pits Paul Lortie against Gene Dubuque and a curtain will find Tex Wilkins matching guile and grimaces with Larry Jacobson.

Reardon Honeymoons

MONTEGO BAY, Jamaica, Dec. 9.—(BUP)—Kenny Reardon, former all-star defenceman with Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League is honeymooning today with the boss' daughter.

Reardon, 29-year-old native of Winnipeg, who quit active hockey play to becoming a roving ambassador for the Canadiens, married Shannon Raymond in Montreal on Thursday. Her father, Senator Donat Raymond, is president of the NHL club.

(Ed. note: Ken Reardon first hit the headlines as a member of Edmonton Athletic Club juniors season 1939-40. He went from here direct to the National Hockey league.)

Boucher On Hot Spot

NEW YORK, Dec. 9 — (CP) — Frank Boucher said last night he doesn't expect to hold his job if his New York Rangers fail to make the National Hockey league playoffs

Bears, Meteors Win Cage Tilts

By Ernie Fedoruk

Local bookies have a saying to the effect "...never bet against the Edmonton Flyers, New York Yankees or Bill Price, the latter when it comes to basketball."

Flyers lead the Western Canada league by a mile, Yankees are world baseball champs and last night at Varsity gym, the starry Price spearheaded a driving band of Waterloo Meteors to a 75-55 triumph over Lethbridge Green Acres in a senior men's exhibition basketball game.

Second half of the doubleheader saw Magrath Rockets, Price's former team, humbled by coach Maury Van Vliet's University of Alberta Golden Bears to the tune of 68-36.

About 400 fans took in the games Price, who last year paced the Rockets to the Alberta title, turned in an outstanding performance for Meteors. The easy-going guard polled 15 points and set up numerous other plays.

PEARCE POTS 16

Big Gordie Pearce was top point-getter for the winners, tallying 16 points while forwards Doug Blue (13) and Hobey Clark (12) also put sting into the Edmonton attack.

Lethbridge's three California-bred products, Jack Marcus, Dave Fernandez and Jack Lilja were by far the best for visitors.

Marcus was high scorer for the night, hitting the hoop for 22 points, several on dazzling shots.

Golden Bears completely dominated their smaller rivals in posting their one-sided victory.

ROCKETS FIZZLE

Magrath seemed only a shadow of the team that last season captured provincial honors and went on to the Western Canada final.

The well-drilled Varsity students were held in check for the first few minutes but soon opened up a sustained drive that saw them lead 24-16 at half time.

The final half was all Varsity's show as they outscored the fizzled Rockets 44-14.

Don McIntosh (16), Steve Mendryk (14) and Herb Tesky (12) paced the Golden Bears. Dick Sabey led the Magrath squad with nine points.

Referees slowed both games by a constant blowing of whistles.

All four teams swing back into action tonight at Varsity gym.

Lethbridge will meet the Rockets in the opener, starting at 7:30 while Bears play coach Bob Strother's Meteors immediately following.

Oil Kings to Battle Buffs As Didsbury Opens Rink

By ERNIE FEDORUK

Coach Morey Rimstad announced after Thursday night's sanguine 7-4 triumph over Moose Jaw Canucks, that Oil Kings will play Calgary Buffaloes at Didsbury next Friday.

Game will enable the people of Didsbury to officially open their new rink.

Next Thursday night Oil Kings will entertain Medicine Hat Tigers at the Gardens.

Thursday night's game gave the crowd a chance to see the locals' 'road' uniforms. Oil Kings' home duds are basically white, and so similar to Canucks. As a result the boys changed into the snappy red (with blue and white trim) sweaters and socks before the game.

Except for one or two Oil Kings who skated as if they had their feet in a bucket of tar, the Edmontonians displayed more zip than in any of their previous contests.

The customers got more than their six bits worth when a fight broke out between two enthusiastic fans in the third period. The older battler beat a hasty retreat after a few blows were struck.

Canuck coach Roy Bentley wasn't too impressed with Oil Kings. His personal opinion . . . "not much on the Oil Kings belong in the Western Canada Junior Hockey league." He could be wrong.

Bentley is bemoaning the fact that some of his key players are hobbled by injuries. Norm Johnson, who picked up two assists on a losing battle, has an ugly charley horse suffered in a WCJHL contest some days ago.

Everybody, except the referees, it seems, noticed that the second Moose Jaw goal tallied by Dave Russell was offside.

Bruce Dickson's second goal climaxed a resplendent passing play with all of Oil Kings' players on the ice at the time figuring in it. Gerry Prince and Ed Zoniuk were given assists.

Stamps In Fast Finish To Nip Regina Caps 3-1

CALGARY, Dec. 9—(CP)—Calgary Stampeders last night came from behind to deafeat the last-place Regina Capitals 3-1 in a Western Canada Hockey league game.

The win boosted second-place Stampeders four points over the idle Saskatoon Quakers. Edmonton leads the league with 35 points.

Calgary goals were scored by Sid Finney, Julian Sawchuk and Archie Scott. Ab McDougall counted the lone Regina marker.

The clubs skated through a drab first period with neither scoring. Calgarys punch line of Finney, Mitch Pechet and Scott threatened on several occasions but brilliant work by Bev Bentley in Regina's nets kept them from scoring.

★ ★ ★

Regina opened the scoring with less than eight minutes played in the second period when McDougall pushed the puck past goalie Russ Dertell.

The goal caught Stamps flat-footed. They had been pressing from the opening of the period and had four men inside the Regina blueline when Red Tilson stole the puck and broke away with McDougall.

Stamps continued to threaten for the remainder of the period but Bentley's outstanding work in goal thwarted them.

Caps lost the services of Norm Blackett early in the third period when the winger was forced to retire to the dressing room with an injured shoulder.

★ ★ ★

As Stamps continued to press for the equalizer, Sawchuk almost scored with a blueline shot which struck the goal post.

Finney finally broke the Bentley spell at the 11:00 minute mark when Pechet sent him in alone.

Less than two minutes later Sawchuk drove a screen shot from the blueline past Bentley to give Calgary the lead for the first time in the game.

With Pechet and Johnny Harms serving penalties, Scott and Finney combined for the prettiest goal of the night. Scott just got his stick on Finney's goal-mouth pass to tick the puck past Bentley.

Stampeders outshot Capitals 27-23.

Regina—Bentley; Myles, Wilkie; Staseson, Popein, Hauck. Subs: Allen Sandalack, Johnson, McDougall, Tilson, Harms, Blackett, Jenkins.

Calgary—Dertell; Sawchuk, Gilmoity; Finney, Pechet, Scott. Subs: Clark, Wilder, Anderson, Grant, Milliard, Simpson, Novak, Lerohe.

Officials—Paul Bozak, Moose Jaw and Maurice Walsh, Ajax, Ont.

SUMMARY

First Period: Scoring—none. Penalties—Dertell (served by Anderson), Sandalack, Wilder.

Second Period: Regina, McDougall (Tilson) 7:26. Penalty—McDougall.

Third Period: Calgary, Finney (Pechet) 11:00; Calgary, Sawchuk (Milliard, Wilder) 12:41. Calgary, Scott (Finney, Clark) 13:35. Penalties—Sandalack, Pechet, Harms.

Portrait of a Man Talking to Himself

So . . . now it's the turn of Elmer Kreller to go on the injured list. Real bad time Flyers have had of it this season, what with one injury piling on top of another. It's a good thing Frank Currie was in a position to sign so many players to start the season. Also a good thing his crystal ball, or something, told him that was the thing to do.

Sometimes you have to wonder if so many of the Flyers would be getting crocked up if 'Pug' Young was still in there throwing his 210 pounds around on their side. Not that most of the Flyers can't take care of themselves in the heavy going.

★ ★ ★ ★

But Young had a way of keeping the musclemen on the other teams honest. Frequently by the time they got through mixing it with the big fellow, they were glad to play hockey and forget the rough stuff. He'd have made Zeidel look twice. Heindl and Julian Sawchuk, too.

★ ★ ★

See where the cut given visiting teams in the Western Canada Hockey league has been hiked from 10 to 20 per cent. Wonder how long the Flyers and Calgary are going to fancy having to act like the mint.

Let's see now. An example of games between the Flyers and Regina, say, must cost Flyers about $1200. Surely the difference between what Caps will take out of here as their end, and what Flyers would come into in Regina, can't be much less than that.

For sure, things could get better in Regina, to say nothing of Saskatoon. At that Quakers seem to be drawing about the same as they were at this time last year. They came fast at the box-office after Christmas.

Suppose, though, that Flyers and Stampeders have to go on tooting the bills, even for the rest of this season. That could mean one of two things: Either the league turns out and out professional, with a major league tie-up for any club that needs one, and a salary limit, or the Big Four league—two teams in Edmonton, two in Calgary—might be yanked out of the moth-balls.

★ ★ ★ ★

Must be worrisome times for the men behind that big new rink that's scheduled to open in Calgary, Boxing Day. Presumably they got into the bank for a nice chunk on the strength of continued lush times around the league.

★ ★ ★ ★

Have a feeling that George Allen is going to get those Caps to rolling, yet. Certainly they've given the Flyers all they've wanted in most games.

If Allen could just talk 'em into winning their share of the close ones—the 2-1 and 3-2 games—those guys out of Regina might prove equally as rough as the Chinese Commies.

Wonder what happens when the boys get back to the 38th parallel? Do you suppose . . . hey Moher what's with you? One second you're talking to yourself about hockey, the next you're messing around with something far more serious and maybe far more vital, too, before long. Get back on the course, you deck-chair strategist.

★ ★ ★ ★

Just gotta take a peek at the Flyers-Regina game at the Gardens tonight. Lots of good looking talent on both teams, even if some of it isn't as young as it used to be.

★ ★ ★ ★

Still Ray Barry, Colin Kilburn, Gord Staseson, Doug Anderson, Bev Bentley, Ray Frederick, Eddie Cutts and Lloyd Ferguson, for instance, aren't exactly senile. There's Ab McDougall, too, even if he does look a stride slower than a year ago.

McDougall has a great way of going . . . smooth, neat, graceful. When he scores a goal there's no guesswork about who should get credit.

Say, Moher, which town do you live in, Edmonton or Regina? What's all this guff about a visiting player, who's going to be trying to knock the ears off Flyers in a few hours?

★ ★ ★ ★

How about a plug for Mac Colville, instead. He's fooled a lot of jokers who said he couldn't come back. Yes, you included.

JOE LOUIS TO FIGHT BESHORE

NEW YORK, Dec. 9—(AP) — Joe Louis will make his next start against Freddie Beshore of Harrisburg, Pa., in Detroit's Olympia, Jan. 3.

Detroit promotor Nick Londes said he had closed for the match yesterday. It will be Louis' second comeback effort since his decisive loss to heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles.

The 36-year-old Brown Bomber outpointed Argentina's Cesar Brion in Chicago in a none too impressive performance 10 days ago.

Velez Here Tuesday To Complete Training

As exclusively reported in the Bulletin Thursday, Joey Velez from Spokane will form the opposition for George Dunn in a lightweight prizefight here next Saturday.

The Spokane socker will arrive in Edmonton Tuesday to complete training for the bout. He will fly here by private aircraft, with a pilot and trainer scheduled to make the trip with him.

Meanwhile, the promoting combine of Jack Berry-Frank Cockrall-Arnold Dickson is seeking preliminary attractions worthy of what shapes up as a cracker jack main event.

They hope to match Hal Robbins of Vancouver and other stations with Ernie Kemick from Calgary, Kemick was kayoed by Velez in four rounds in Cowtown last Saturday.

There is some possibility, too, of Bob Bacon and Jersey Joe Edwards being re-matched. They staged the best bout on the last professional card here.

Golden Glover Art Hart Loses to Barrhead Belter

(Special to the Bulletin)

BARRHEAD, Dec. 8— Over 1,000 fans poured into the Auditorium last night to witness a rousing amateur fight card sponsored by the Barrhead Boxing Club.

Included on the 15-bout card were boys from the local organization, Edmonton Boys' Boxing Club, Edmonton South Side Legion, Red Deer and Manola.

In the feature fight of the night, a 126-pound attraction, Eddie Ernst of Barrhead pounded out a clean-cut decision over Golden Glover Art Hart from Red Deer.

Hart, who hasn't the benefit of a coach or trainer recently, put up a game bid against homebrew Ernst.

KOCH WINS

Another outstanding scrap was the middleweight affair between Bill Koch of Barrhead and Sgt. Joe Smith. The Barrhead belter "won it all the way", as the saying goes, although hard-pressed in the late going.

A couple of paperweights—Bobby Reid of South Side and Barrhead's Lloyd Fluett—dished up a humdinger of a battle to highlight the supporting card. Reid copped the duke.

There was only one knockout on the bill of fare, Johnny Erwin from EBBC lowering the boom on Barrhead's Ken Kozak in the second round.

The entertaining show was also a profitable one for the Barrhead club, some $300 being realized. One of the moving forces behind it was local boxing coach Les McKinley, principal of the Barrhead school.

MAYOR YUILL TO FORE

There were others, too, including Mayor Charlie Yuill, who assisted with the judging. Johnny Smith and Tom Quilley, both of Edmonton, also participated as judges and referees.

Visiting boxing coaches included Jim Parsons of the South Side and Alf Tansey from EBBC.

Majority of the boys in action last night will be candidates for honors in the annual Edmonton Bulletin Golden Gloves, a tournament of champions which is billed for February.

Following are complete results:

70 Pounds: Jerry Ciochetti, Barrhead, drew with W. Fraperi, Barrhead.

80 Pounds: H. Reid, South Side, decisioned L. Fluett, Barrhead.

90 Pounds: Kai Soon, Barrhead, decisioned Clarence Ernst, Barrhead.

90 Pounds—Sgt. Cotterell, Barrhead, drew with F. Bonet, Manola.

90 Pounds: Ed Hornsby, Barhead, drew with T. Perrish, Barrhead.

100 Pounds: Jack Hornsby, Barrhead, drew with Albert Wisten, Barrhead.

110 Pounds: Will Henke, Barrhead, decisioned G. Rosser, Barrhead.

118 Pounds: Ken Craig, Barrhead, decisioned Bob Downie, SSL.

126 Pounds: W. McKeever, Manola, decisioned W. Unkie, Barrhead.

126 Pounds: Red Hornsby, Barrhead, decisioned Bob Quidle, SSL.

126 Pounds: Teddy Demchuk, EBBC, decisioned Charlie Verella, Barrhead.

126 Pounds: Eddie Ernst, Barrhead, decisioned Art Hart, Red Deer.

135 Pounds: Johnny Erwin, EBBC, knocked out Ken Kozak, Barrhead, in 2nd round.

135 Pounds: Don Boyce, Barrhead, decisioned Bill Cortes, EBBC.

160 Pounds: Bill Koch, Barrhead, decisioned Joe Smith, SSL.

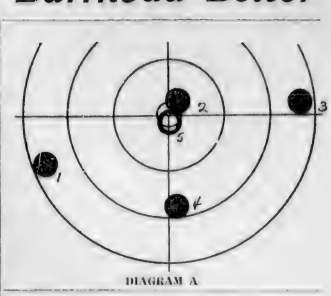

DIAGRAM A

TODAY'S PROBLEM: No. 1 is shot rock, with opponent, No. 2, second shot. There are two rocks to come and it is the 12th end. The skip lying shot is to shoot and is one up. He can: 1, lay a guard; 2, draw for second shot; 3, strike No. 2 rock and lie two. Which would you do?

Billy Rose's Curling 'Clinic' Continues

(This is the second in a series 'How Would You Play It' written exclusively for the Bulletin by Billy Rose, former Canadian champion).

In my first article in this series I posed a problem, as depicted in diagram "A", above. The situation was this: Score is tied coming home and I am laying three, with two rocks to come. My opponent has one rock left.

What should I do with my first rock?

Answer: Play the next rock anywhere—hog it even—rather than play a guard as at No. 4. Wherever No. 5 is placed, you can get at it to remove it with the last stone.

This actually happened in an important Brier game. The guard, No. 4, was laid and the opposing skip drew perfectly to the shot rock with No. 5. It was then impossible to get.

Granted he made an exceptional shot, the fact remains the guard lost the game.

Seasonal Slump Slows Down Jobs

Prairies, B.C. Show Largest Increases In Unemployment

OTTAWA, Dec. 9.—(CP)—Seasonal unemployment is increasing slowly but is less than a year ago, the labor department reported today.

Its latest job survey showed both a growing seasonal surplus of unskilled labor and a developing shortage of skilled workers.

At Nov. 16, the number of applications for work with National Employment Service was 163,800, up by 16,800 from Nov. 2 but about 31,000 less than a year earlier.

The prairies and British Columbia showed the largest proportionate increases in unemployment, though all areas except Newfoundland had increases. In all regions, there was less unemployment than last year.

Newfoundland's job-seekers at Nov. 16 totalled 3,000, down 300 from a fortnight earlier.

In the Maritimes, the total went from 17,000 to 18,700; in Quebec from 45,400 to 49,600; in Ontario from 38,300 to 41,600; in the prairie provinces from 20,500 to 23,400; and in British Columbia from 22,400 to 25,500.

The department said the usual seasonal contraction of industries such as construction and agriculture has sent many workers looking for other jobs.

Manufacturing industries were hiring steadily and industries producing consumer goods were operating at peak levels.

Cutting activity in the woods was nearing its peak and many companies were still looking for woods workers. But earlier acute shortages had been alleviated.

Partial breakdown by regions with Nov. 2 figures in brackets:

Newfoundland-St. John's 2,223 (2,651); Moncton 2,226 (1,854); Saint John 2,842 (2,516).

Quebec — Drummondville 1,333 (1,181); Montreal 19,416 (17,757); Quebec City 6,101 (5,544); Sherbrooke 1,376 (1,666); Thetford Mines 611 (583).

Prairie—Fort William-Port Arthur 1,487 (1,257); Winnipeg 8,091 (6,386); Regina 1,210 (880); Saskatoon 1,824 (1,451); Calgary 3,098 (2,656); Edmonton 3,445 (2,987).

Pacific—Vancouver 13,844 (12,627); Victoria 2,409 (2,201); Prince George 355 (202); New Westminster 3,719 (3,170).

Society For Handicapped

A representative group from Edmonton welfare organizations met last night to discuss formation of a society to assist physically handicapped persons and shut-ins.

Members of the Council of Community Services are initiating the plan, which would be based on the successfully operated Friendship club for aged persons.

JOIN FORCES

Those at the meeting last night discussed the possibility of joining forces and organizing one co-operative society to aid shut-ins.

Representatives at the meeting were asked to go back to their own groups and discuss the idea with them.

Next meeting will be held late in January in the recreation building. Mrs. Russell Love, vice-president of the Council of Community Services, presided over the meeting.

Fog and Dogs

FOGGY WEATHER: People from Vancouver felt right at home last night.

★ ★ ★ ★

Say it ain't so Mr. Vendor: That awful rumor going the rouads that the Alberta Government liquor store ordered 2,000 gallons of distilled water.

★ ★ ★ ★

There must be hundreds of lost dogs in Edmonton.

Ever since I ran the story about little Michael Mahoney losing his pet Goldie, people have been phoning and writing me about dogs.

★ ★ ★ ★

Yesterday a man brought a little black and white Spitz to the Mahoney home. Dog had been following him around.

It wasn't Goldie and it's such a well-trained dog that Mrs. Mahoney is sure that somebody must have lost it.

It is very fond of children. If you've lost a dog of this description call Mrs. Mahoney at 26219. It's being well cared for until the owner shows up.

★ ★ ★ ★

Some of the lost dog stories I've been getting are not without humorc is aspects.

For instance, Gordon Newton of 12308-107 avenue lost Terry, a Boston bull terrier, that has been just about everything in the world to the three Newton kiddies.

A few minutes after the Newtons advertised loss of their pet, a man telephoned he saw a Boston terrier in a yard of his next door neighbor, who doesn't own a dog.

★ ★ ★ ★

The Newtons rushed to the scene. Sure enough, Terry was there. Man of the house explained dog's presence. A friend of his daughter had given it to the young lady as a Christmas present.

★ ★ ★ ★

And just to prove that people are really trying to get lost dogs back home, I received this welcome note in last night's mail from Mrs. J. D. Campbell of 10128-117 street:

Mrs. Campbell writes in part:

A very special thank you for publishing a lost announcement in your columns concerning a partially blind, reddish brown cocker spaniel.

We now have him back, thanks to Mrs. M. A. Nugent, who took time out at 12:20 a.m. to stop her car and rescue him from the middle of the road and take him to hospital.

Everyone is happy here and our little pet is certainly glad to be back home.

★ ★ ★ ★

Pedestrians and mental fog: Ed Howe of 10939-101 street, thinks a lot of people didn't take Pedestrian Safety week very seriously.

Says a man stepped right in front of his car in that fog last night just to show off.

Ed thinks pedestrians should try and help a careful motorist out on a night such as last night. I'll never argue with you on that point Mr. Howe.

★ ★ ★ ★

Soprano Demonstrates Versatility In Recital

Eileen Farrell is not one of the great sopranos of this century but she is certainly one of the most versatile.

In her very satisfying recital at McDougall United Church last night, she ranged freely over the fields of light, semi-classical and classical music.

NO TRICK

Miss Farrell has been doing this for the last ten years as a featured performer on many American radio shows. And thus, it was no trick for her last night to present on one program such dissimilar works as an aria from Verdi's "La Forza del Destino" and George Gershwin's "Summertime" and to couple a nineteenth century Scottish ballad with an eighteenth century German operatic air.

It seems difficult for a soprano to combine clarity and facility with warmth of expression.

LOSES CLARITY

And in Miss Farrell's case, it seemed, she lost in clarity what she gained in warmth. Her rich voice was used very effectively on such deep-lowing melodies as "Think of Me," by Lady Ann Scott, Gershwin's "Summertime" and "Lullaby" by Scott.

And her gift for imbuing feeling into a song made very satisfying her rendition of Debussy's poignant "Beau Soir", the charming but little-known "Psyche" by Pala-dilhe, and the majestic Psalm 137 as set to music by Alec Wilder.

But this same richness, this warmth of feeling tended to clog Miss Farrell's performances of more sprightly works calling for much greater vocal facility. I thought this was apparent in the Gluck and Verdi arias, two songs by Greig and "Botschaft" by Brahms.—(MS).

XMAS TREES CAN BE MENACE, ESC WARNS

Don't let a Christmas tree bring tragedy to your home instead of joy.

That is the appeal issued today by the Edmonton Safety Council.

The council urged householders to observe four rules of safety when setting up their Christmas trees indoors.

Keep the tree moist, check tree lights for possible "shorts," place the tree as far as possible from radiants or stoves, fasten it securely and your tree will be safe.

"Evergreen trees reach the householder in varying stages of dryness," points out the council. "If they have remained frozen from the time they were cut until being brought into the house, the chances are good that enough moisture is present to make the tree reasonably fire resistant for two or three days."

After that, the moisture should be maintained by standing it in a pan of water and keeping the level of water above the base cut which should be angular to absorb the maximum of moisture.

Following a Safety Council campaign, the Edmonton city council passed a by-law in 1947 requiring all tree vendors to attach a tag to each tree giving information for safe handling in the home. The warning tag must be approved by the Fire Chief.

Committee Formed For Civil Defence

The first local Civil Defence Committee was formed Thursday night as representatives of city Legion branches met with Brigadier J. C. Jefferson, newly-appointed city co-ordinator of civil defence.

Brig. Jefferson stated that Legion members were ideal for leadership in time of disaster because they are all disciplined men and had worked under disaster conditions before.

Last night's meeting was foreunner of similar meetings to be held all over the province.

COMMITTEEMEN

Representatives of the branches serving on the committee are: Percy Gwynn, Montgomery; Lawrence Hamilton, South Side; Brig. Ernie Wilson, Kingsway; Zeta Christie, Women's branch, and representatives from Norwood and Jasper Place branches.

The committee will meet again Sunday to discuss definite plans of procedure in time of disaster or war.

Last night's meeting was called by Norman Stanners, zone commander, and George Gleave, provincial president of the Canadian Legion.

Drug Is Credited With Saving 5 Wreck Victims

By Barney McKinley

Prompt use of the high priority drug cortisone was credited by Edmonton medical men today with saving the lives of five dangerously burned survivors of the Canoe River rail disaster.

The five were Cars Leo William Blanchard, Corner Brook, Nfld.; Walter Nicoll Brown, Cowansville, Que.; Francis Joseph Burke, St. John's, Nfld.; James Curnew, Glace Bay, N.S.; James Patrick Duffy, Toronto.

A sixth man given the drug, David Owens, of Granby, Que., died today. His death was attributed to other factors besides burns.

Members of the Second Field Regiment Royal Canadian Horse Artillery aboard the westbound troop train that crashed into a passenger train, Nov. 21, they were among 10 given the "wonder drug" shortly after being brought to University hospital.

BADLY BURNED

Hospital authorities feared the badly shocked and burned wreck casualties might not be able to fight off the toxic effects of poison from extremely damaged tissues.

Five or six days would have to elapse before the fight for life would resolve itself, the authorities stated.

Two days later the men were showing "marked improvement."

Today the greater part of the credit for the "miracle" recovery was being given to cortisone.

Hopes are also high that use of the drug in an ointment form may save the five — and other burned survivors—from the extensive scarring that hitherto has resulted from serious burns.

Medical officers of the Department of Veterans' Affairs in describing the emergency use of the comparatively new drug said they believed it was the first time in medical history that burn cases had been treated with cortisone "on such a scale."

The two doctors who supervised administration of the cortisone said it was given by hypodermic in "quite large amounts" twice a day.

"These men would have died if they had suffered the same injuries in 1940," one doctor stated. "In my opinion use of cortisone saved them."

The medical men said the chief danger to life in cases of severe burning was shock brought on by toxic poisons entering the system from damaged tissues. The effect was particularly bad on the kidneys and liver, they said.

SHOCK CAUSE

Doctors described the shock condition as due to "supra-renal exhaustion."

The supra-renal is a small gland above the kidneys. One of its secretions is cortisone.

The doctors said in view of the fact the cortisone secretion of burn victims would be low they decided to administer the drug to counteract the poisons from damaged tissues.

They termed results "very encouraging."

IRATE CITIZENS

Cold Weather Gives Police, City Motorists Meter Trouble

Cold weather is giving city police a double-barrelled headache these days.

Frigid temperatures are causing city parking meters to act up and irate motorists are storming the station claiming that some meter violation tickets are unjust.

Police explain it this way: Some meters freeze up causing the mechanism to stick and preventing it from registering. Motorists deposit their nickel and then receive a ticket for the parking violation.

A two-man crew oil the meters every fall but some fail to respond to treatment.

A second base of the boys on the beat who handle the meters is the motorist who spits on the warm coin causing it to stick in the meter slot, allowing them to get free parking for an indefinite time.

The honest motorist then comes along, drops his nickel in on top of the frozen one and gets a ticket when the meter fails to register.

When the motorist complains, the police have to go to the faulty meter and poke the coin out of the slot with a piece of wire.

Police are seeking a remedy to the meters and promise a "heavy fine" to any motorist caught wetting the coin to get free time.

$2,235,000 Royal Alex Program Is Postponed

Civil defence considerations have temporarily stalled plans for Royal Alexandra hospital's $2,235,000 renovation and expansion program.

City commissioners and hospital board officials last night agreed to postpone "for a reasonable period" any construction, until federal and provincial governments state their readiness to pay part of the cost of civil defence preparations and of extra cost involved in dispersing hospital facilities.

Acting Mayor Bill Hawrelak told the meeting the federal co-ordinator of civil defence has strongly advised against building any more hospital facilities on present Royal Alexandra site. Further construction should be decentralized, he said.

TARGET

Ald. Fred Mitchell, hospital board chairman, said the federal government had contributed toward making Edmonton a potential enemy bombing target, and decentralization would impose extra costs on the city. These it was agreed the city is unable to carry.

Ald. Mitchell pointed out that initial extra cost of building somewhere else would be only part of the extra burden, since maintenance costs also would be much higher with a separate unit.

Acting Mayor Hawrelak said there is no doubt of the provincial government's willingness to assist in meeting civil defence costs, and commissioners will make a formal request to it for aid.

Dr. D. R. Easton, hospital superintendent, the most economical unit for a civilian hospital is 800 beds, and the present institution is a 560 bed one. Not only will addition of the other 100 bed $1,000,000 maternity wing bring it to a more economical operating size, but the $1,200,000 renovations simply must be done to keep it operating at all.

He and Dr. Alan Day said it would be "completely impractical" to build a maternity hospital anywhere on the city's outskirts, as was suggested by others present at the meeting.

Dr. Day said a 4,000 bed hospital is now being built right in the heart of New York—one of the most likely target areas in any warfare.

Ten Buses Reach City

Ten new 44-passenger, propane-powered buses for Edmonton Transit System were due here today after an eventful road trip from the factory.

Superintendent Tom Ferrier said today the buses, worth $20,700 each, have been driven from Twin Coach Company of Canada's Fort Erie, Ont., plant through the United States, where they ran into some of the bad storms which buffeted Northern states recently. It was not always possible to buy proper fuel on the trip, and substitutes had to be used.

As soon as the fuel systems can be cleaned out after arrival, the new, super-economical vehicles will be put in service on Bonnie Doon and other feeder routes.

"They are arriving in good time to help out tremendously in handling the Christmas season traffic," said Mr. Ferrier.

Piano Star From Spain In City Soon

The younger member of the famous piano-playing Iturbi family, Amparo Iturbi, will appear in a Celebrity Classic series concert next Friday in McDougall United Church.

Since her arrival in America from her native Spain, she has appeared in recitals from coast to coast, as soloist with major symphony orchestras and in motion pictures with her more famous brother Jose.

Noted for the freshness and vitality she brings to her music, Madame Iturbi will present a program ideally suited to her warm and romantic piano style.

The second half of her program is made up entirely of modern French and Spanish music, by Faure, Debussy, Infante, Granados and de Falla.

Her only pure classical number is Mozart's Sonata in B Flat Major, No. 7, with which she will open her program. The sparkling romanticism of the nineteenth century composers Mendelssohn and Chopin will also be interpreted by Madame Iturbi.

FROM SPAIN, Amparo Iturbi will bring to Edmonton music-lovers next week a piano recital emphasizing color and romance of her native country. Spanish composers Granados, Infante and de Falla will be prominently represented in her Friday evening concert in McDougall United Church.

Trucker is Fined At Barrhead

BARRHEAD, Dec. 9—Magistrate R. E. Barnes of Westlock conducted court in Barrhead this week and most of the afternoon was taken up by an alledged hit and run case.

Andrew Neliaher of Bloomsbury was stated to have backed his truck into a parked vehicle damaging it to the extent of $300. Pleading guilty it was necessary to call numerous witnesses. The case for the crown was conducted by Sgt. Thomson of the RCMP. Westlock detachment, while Neliaher was not represented by counsel.

The magistrate found the case proven and assessed a fine of $25 and costs.

HSA Meets

WILLINGDON, Dec. 9—Willingdon Home and School held annual meeting in School Gym Wednesday with following officers elected for the coming year: president, Metro Karbashewski; vice-president, Mrs. John Romani; secretary-treasurer, Alice Oneschuk; directors, Mrs. Mesculuk, Mr. J. Chernichan and Mr. W. Tkachuk.

Plans were made to serve hot lunches to the country children during the winter months, and to reopen the kindergarten in April when the weather would permit the small children to come in from the country.

Museum Program Given To Younger Musicians

The weekly Musicale of the Edmonton Museum of Arts will be devoted this Sunday, 3 p.m., to the city's younger musical artists.

Twenty-three musicians, ranging from eight to 17, will play a varied one-hour program of violin and piano music.

Members of Alberta College's Allegro Club, in the 8:42-age group, the pianists are Judy Kalen, Gary Clarke, Joan Myers, Kathleen Norman, Lorraine McDonnagh, Wilson Rogers, Celia Searth, Monique and Nicole Jentven (duet), Beth Gardner, Leslie Flint, Margie Aylen, Carol Sinclair, and Helen Wilson.

Vocalists in this group are Irene Gorman and Allison Trayner.

From the 12-17 age group come violinist Edward Dusterhoft, and pianists Marjorie Turner, Helen Kenny, Marie Peterson, Gloria Wilson, Shirley Green and Barbara Shortreed.

Works played will be by the classical composers—Mozart, Schumann, Handel, Haydn, Bach, Corelli—and by such relative moderns as Chopin and Debussy.

Program chairman is E. A. Moore, director of music at Alberta College.

Cubs Collect Toys

LLOYDMINSTER, Dec. 9—Lloydminster Cubs will be all out next week to collect up all the old and discarded toys.

These will be taken to the Scout hut and to be repaired for distribution among the less fortunate children. This is a policy that has been developed over the past few years and has proven successful.

Awards Given Rocky Students

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Dec. 9—Various scholarships won by local students were presented at a meeting held in the new school Monday, with George A. Taylor, principal of the school, as chairman.

Mrs. Charles V. Fay, regent of the IODE presented the chapter's scholarship to Victor Maxwell, who had the highest Grade Nine standing in the school. He also won the sub-division six award.

Findlay Barnes, divisional superintendent, presented Lawrence Mezza with the scholarship for sub-division one, Mr. Barnes also made the presentation to Ina Sinclair of the Canadian Legion Bursary.

In his short speech, Mr. Barnes, just back from three years with the department of education in Ethiopia, told the students how very fortunate Canadian pupils are, compared to those in Eastern lands, explaining that here all children have a chance, whereas in the greater part of the world, that is not true.

BARRHEAD, Dec. 9—At a meeting of the Town Council this week it was decided to enter into an agreement with the local St. Josephs Hospital whereby taxpayers will get hospital care for the sum of $1 per day, with extra cost being shared jointly by the Province of Alberta and the Town of Barrhead.

Non-taxpayers may avail themselves of the plan by paying a fixed annual levy.

Light Music, Plays Dominate On CBC

Statistics Answer Charges That Service Too Highbrow

By Maury Soward

As if in answer to those who claim it's too highbrow, the CBC annual report just issued shows light music and drama topped all other categories in number of hours during 1949-50.

Music of all kinds took up just over half (50.1 per cent) of the total hours of broadcasting on the French, Trans-Canada and Dominion networks. Within this field light music accounted for 5,220 hours of the approximately 12,000 hours devoted to music of all kinds.

Then followed semi-classical music (1,371), variety (1,305), dance (1,217), and classical (1,126). It's a little difficult to discover what the CBC means by "classical", however, as separate categories are listed for "symphony" and "opera."

In the field of spoken programs, drama and features head the list with 3,041 hours, news broadcasts follow with 2,580 and informative talks 2,002. Agriculture has 1,035 hours and children's, educational, religious, women's, sports and prose and poetry programs take up the rest.

One of the top sports events of the Fall unfortunately won't be available to the average Edmonton radio-owner.

It's the running of the $100,000 added Hollywood Gold Cup this afternoon but it will take a pretty good set to pick up KSL at 5 p.m. The lucky ones can hear Noor carrying top weight against the likes of Assault, Hill Prince, Ponder, Your Host and Vulcan's Forge.

The top American dramatic program, "NBC Theatre" switches to a new time this week. Winner of two awards for outstanding literary good taste and dramatic sensitivity, the Theatre moves to 4:30 p.m. Saturday from its former Sunday afternoon time-spot.

It replaces "First Piano Quartet", which will now be heard at 12:30 p.m. Sunday on NBC.

Verdi's "Rigoletto" will be the latest Wednesday night operatic production of the CBC Opera Company. With the Toronto Symphony Orchestra under Nicholas Goldschmidt, James Shields, Gilles Lamontagne and June Kowalchuk will sing the leading roles in this best-loved of Verdi's operas.

Listeners will have the opportunity to compare the CBC technique of presenting opera mainly for a listening audience with the American procedure of simply broadcasting a live performance. Saturday at 12 noon, the CBC will carry the Metropolitan Opera production of Wagner's Tristan and Isolde with Helen Traubel, Ramon Vinay and Blanche Thebom.

I don't think the CBC Opera Company will suffer by contrast but, as this department has noted before, the quality of the CBC's operas represent a considerable sacrifice of money and talent from other potential programs.

The fabulous Arthur Godfrey will inch a little further into the affections of Canadians this week when the CBC airs another of his many shows on the Trans-Canada network. It's "Arthur Godfrey Time," at 2:30 over CBX, Monday to Friday.

The show's format is a tested blend of comedy, music and songs featuring "The Little Godfreys," vocalists Bill Lawrence and Janette Davis, several singing groups and Archie Bleyer's orchestra.

Guido Cantelli, young Italian conductor returned to the podium of the NBC Symphony conductor as guest conductor for eight weeks. Every Monday on NBC at 8 p.m.

Why Television's Called 'Medium'

"I discovered why they call television a medium," Fred Allen said to NBC's Tallulah Bankhead. "Because nothing's well done."

"But Fred, darling," said Miss Bankhead, "why did you leave radio?"

"Well, I'll tell you," Allen replied. "They wanted me to do one of those programs where you call up people and ask them questions and give them prizes. That's why I quit and went into television."

"You mean—"

"Yes, it was a choice between the medium and the telephone."

Service Recognized By Lloyd Board

LLOYDMINSTER, Dec. 9—In appreciation of his long service to the citizenship of Lloydminster, J. J. Boyd, was presented with a pen and pencil set by his fellow members of the Lloydminster public school board recently.

Boyd, who did not seek re-election to the board at the recent elections is completing 22 years service on the board.

In recognition of the service Rev. W. H. Peckover has given to education in Lloydminster, Trustee F. R. Wade presented him with a small token of appreciation. Rev. Peckover will be leaving Lloydminster early in the New Year.

Admirer of Gen. Currie Writes Fine Biography

It is 16 years since the late Col. Hugh M. Urquhart (known as "Sandy" to all who knew and admired him) was assigned by a group of former officers of the Canadian Corps to write the biography of the late Sir Arthur Currie. From mid-summer of 1917 until demobilization in 1919 Gen. Currie commanded the corps in the First World War.

Few men were as well qualified for the task. Col. Urquhart served with outstanding credit in the Canadian Corps, first as a company commander of the 16th (Canadian Scottish) Battalion, then as a staff officer of the 1st Canadian Infantry Brigade. When he was seriously wounded at Amiens, in August, 1918, he was commanding officer of the 43rd Battalion. He knew Sir Arthur intimately and was one of the corps commander's most ardent admirers.

The bond between them was close and warm.

He has produced an outstanding work in "Arthur Currie: the biography of a great Canadian" (Dent). When one has said that, however, one must hasten to add that, in a w.-y, it is an unhappy book. The biographer knew long before he assumed his task that that would be so; but he carried out the assignment with that painstaking thoroughness which was always one of his distinguishing characteristics.

ENTIRE CENTURY

The book spans an entire century, from the days when Currie's grandparents came to Canada from Ireland, and settled in the backwoods of Strathroy in western Ontario—backwoods that are today renowned for their cultivated beauty.

The story exhibits Sir Arthur as descended from rare pioneering stock, from ancestors who accepted their responsibilities as citizens and played their part modestly and played their part modestly and training as a teacher, his move to British Columbia where, after several years on Vancouver Island, he established himself in Victoria in the business of real estate and insurance, are set forth. W. W. M.

Denning Stars

Richard Denning, who is the favorite husband of the CBS "My Favorite Husband" program, is starring a new film, "Insurance Investigator," at Republic studios.

The world's largest artificial lake is Lake Mead at the Hoover Dam on the Colorado River, covering 31,000,000 acres.

Real Auctioneer

F. E. Boone, tobacco auctioneer of NBC's "Your Hit Parade," flies in from Lexington, Ky., each Saturday to do his chanting on the show, which originates in NBC's Centre Theatre, New York.

The rest of the week he is a real-life tobacco auctioneer in Lexington.

Cost of LP Records Cut By Newcomer Into Field

The cost of good music for the masses went down in Canada this week—on one company's records, anyway.

Remington record, a newcomer to the already high-competitive field, presented the first of its classical and semi-classical long-play recordings, performed by European artists. Apart from their artistic value, they are worth considering by lovers of music with slim pocketbooks, since they now make such masterpieces as Beethoven's "Emperor" Concerto," Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Scheherezade" and Dvorak's "New World Symphony" available at half the price.

Remington's recordings are chiefly by Viennese orchestras and artists and have the old world favor. Reproduction is good.

JAZZ

Two of the great jazz musicians of our times are featured in albums that demonstrate the latitude of modern music.

"Stan Kenton Presents . . ." a Capitol album by the great exponent of progressive modernism, features the member of one section of the band on each side to the three 12-inch records. Although often criticized as being more showmanship than music, the Kenton records are interesting, if not easy, listening.

Also to hit the Edmonton market soon is "Muggsy Spanier Favorites" an RCA Victor album. This is of the old-style carefully-arranged Dixieland school. Muggsy is at his best on his golden cornet on such numbers as "Dipper-Mouth Blues," "Relaxating at the Touro" and six others.

NEW SINGLES

From the RKO film" Where Danger Lives" Russ Case and his orchestra have taken the beautiful instrumental number "Margot" (MGM) . . . Gordon MacRae does a nice bit of singing with the Cole Porter tunes "Use your Imagination" and "I Am Loved" (Capitol).

Other good ones: Gran Warren singing "Stranger In The City" (RCA Victor) . . . Nellie Luchere's dramatic delivery in "To Be Forgiven" and "That'll Just 'Bout Knock Me Out" (Capitol) . . . Jan Garber's "The Oscarina" (Capitol) . . . Yongi Yorgeson's trombolert in "Someone Spiked the Punch" (Capitol) . . . Perry Como's nostalgic "Marchita" and "So Long Sally" (RCA Victor) . . . The Primo Scala-Reynolds combination's bouncy version of "Willow, Will You Weep for Me" (London). (AJ)

GREAT BIG TREE FOR LITTLE GIRLS' PARTY

PINT-SIZE SPY GETS PREVIEW OF KIWANIS CHRISTMAS PARTY PRESENTS

Warm Hearts Show Spirit Of Yuletide

Sleigh-bells are jingling their December tune and true spirit of Christmas is peeking through commercial come-on of the season.

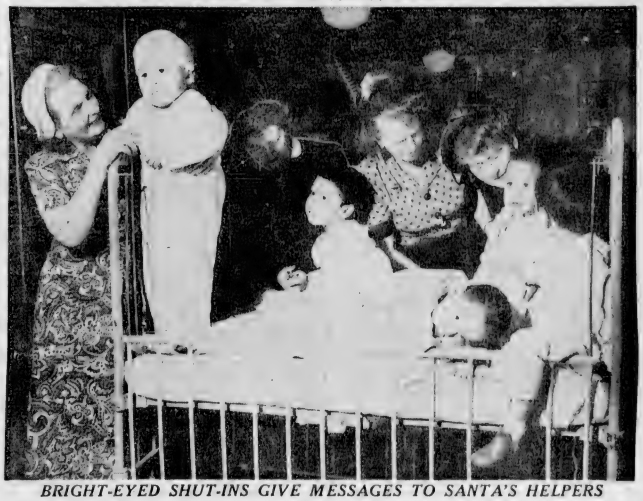
Theme of "goodwill toward men" runs through activities of every women's organization in Edmonton. Party plans are made for hospitalized veterans, children, elderly people and hampers are packed for distribution among needy families.

Yule Treats For Everyone

Cuddly-soft animal toys, a tin of soup, a still-good sweater, a box of homemade cookies, lots of consideration for others and the spirit of Yuletide are team-mates for "helping the helpless".

Average families who enjoy the comforts of home and hearth and thrill to a gift-laden tree at Christmas don't think of the loneliness of a hospital room, the sorrow of parents too poor to buy their children treats.

But once reminded, these same average families dig in and do their best to spread joy of a Merry Christmas.



BRIGHT-EYED SHUT-INS GIVE MESSAGES TO SANTA'S HELPERS

JOY OF SHARING WITH OTHERS IS PART OF TRUE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

CHRISTMAS COMES BUT ONCE EACH YEAR . . . and that's once too often for poor families with many mouths to feed and little income. Lady Aberdeen League members rallied to the Christmas spirit with plans for hampers for needy Edmonton families. Mrs. P. J. Kendal, left, Mrs. W. G. Montgomery, Mrs. T. W. Boles, Mrs. W. S. Murray are busy packing canned goods, clothing, essential household treats to make half a dozen Merry Christmases for half a dozen homes. President Mrs. Montgomery says members have adopted this project with tremendous enthusiasm.

YULETIDE JOY-BELLS RING FOR OLDSTERS TOO

FATHER CHRISTMAS' special envoys to Lions' Sunset Cottages are members of Lions' Ladies' Club. Mrs. R. T. Williams, left, and Mrs. G. F. Thompson call on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Forrest with gaily wrapped parcels for an extra-special Merry Christmas. Annual Christmas party for oldsters will be held a few days before the holiday.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Bea Takes Time Out To Assist Poor Male

By Bea Thrifty

I'm up to my elbows in black ink 'cause I've been painting a large-size sign saying "For Men Only."

More fellas than enough have been plaguing me to select a suitable gift for their fair-haired wife, their blue-eyed best gal, their snub-nosed kid sister, or their sharp-tongued Granny.

So I delved seriously into the matter and came up with this roster of gift suggestions for Merry Yuletide presentations:

FOR MEN ONLY

There's hundreds of men on a fruitless quest for a special something for their beloved . . . and I'm here to help them . . . maybe . . .

Once the obvious list of sterling silver dresser sets, wrist watches, jewelry, hope chest, is said and done there's work for the ol' noggin indeed.

For wifey dear, who loves to play lady of leisure at her home fireside on an occasional evening . . . there's an assortment of right-smart house coats, hostess gowns and lounging pyjamas that would delight a fluttery heart.

I saw a muted plaid wool gown with three-quarter dolman sleeves and gracefully full skirt selling at $22.50. A silk jersey gown, heavy and oh-so-practical but pretty, is jewel-blue and svelte for a price of $14.95.

Lounging pyjamas offer a world-wide choice of color, fashion and fabric. And I'd suggest, chaps . . . you match the fashion to your wife's personality.

Which means, dear man, if your wife loves sports, chili con carne and walks in the country . . . choose something like the plaid 'n plain sets of slacks and lounger-jacket for $19.95.

If she's the romantic, sweetness 'n light, feathery, fluffy sort, choose something to match in satin, velvet, gay print.

If you twosome in the after-five crowd . . . and you're sure of size and suitability . . . buy your favorite femme an elegant sweater knit of boucle and metallic yarn with beaded or pearled embroidery.

They're fashioned with simplicity and are lovely match-makers with taffeta or velveteen skirts.

These sell at prices from $8.95 to $19.95 here.

You'll find these in assorted sizes, colors and brands from $12.95 upward.

For the gal who's nifty with a needle, and takes a whale of a lot of pleasure in her hobby, buy a pair of pinking shears at $7.50.

Then match the giftie with a skirt-marker at $1.19; ribbon of dozen vari-colors and threads; sewing basket with compartments for odds 'n ends; sets of pins, dome fasteners, needles . . . the works.

Monday, we'll take a run at another handful of gift potential for the girls.

And I'll try to run the gamut from the glamor-gals to the grannies for you then.

THE NECK may be the first sign that you are beginning to show age. It can be kept young with exercise, like this.

WHY GROW OLD

Wise Girl Wants to Keep Her Neck Looking Young

By Josephine Lowman
(THE QUESTION BOX)

Q. "I have a nice looking neck but I want to keep it that way. I notice that young women sometimes begin to get an ugly neck even in their twenties."

A. You are a wise young lady. Do this: Sit or stand in front of a mirror. Make circles with your head, moving for a while on one direction and then in the other. Watch in the mirror to be sure you are making complete circles.

Q. "I am 17 years old. I am five feet and one inch tall and weigh 128 pounds. How much should I weigh? Another problem I have is large hips."

A. You are overweight and should lose about 15 pounds. Eat three well-balanced meals a day but leave off those in-between-meal snacks, and candy bars. Instead, take a glass of fruit juice or eat an apple or an orange. Also leave off desserts for a while and do not leave the table absolutely stuffed.

As your weight decreases your hips will become smaller, but if they are out of proportion now they will remain out of proportion and you would be wise to take hip exercises. Do this one: Sit on the floor with your legs straight out in front of you. Place your hand on the floor at your sides. Raise your legs from the floor (knees stiff) until your body weight falls directly over the largest part of your hips. Holding your legs up, roll from side to side, catching yourself on each side with your hands. Do this 50 times in the morning and 50 times at night. You can rest in between each ten times.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Very Important to Follow Doctor's Counsel Closely

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

So you're going to have a baby? If this is the first baby and the parents are young this will come, in some cases, as a tremendous shock.

They may find in it the prospect of unwelcome responsibilities and the loss of their youth. They had believed, presumably, that marriage would be all gaiety and dancing with nothing so serious, immediately, as rearing a child.

The young wife will suspect that she is pregnant if she misses at least two periods. If she also feels squeamish about her food, urinates often and her breasts feel sore and tingly, she may be sure that these are all nature's warning of the coming event.

This is the time to go to a doctor and put herself in his care. If she lives in a strange community she would do well to write home to her own physician and have him recommend a good obstetrician in her new town. It may be one of his own acquaintances, or one whose medical directory history inspires confidence.

Her regimen, her diet, will be directed by the doctor whom she consults. She will make regular monthly visits to him for physical checkups and in the last month or two will go perhaps once weekly.

These visits will be included in the over-all charge her doctor will make for his services.

This may seem expensive, but it is an insurance against bringing into the world a baby who is weak and frail only because its mother has not been properly cared for and fed. A healthy, bouncing baby is not just happenstance, it is the result of a fine, generous and well-balanced diet, an atmosphere, during the nine months, of happy expectancy on the part of both mother and father. Those are the influences which make this new experience a satisfying and successful one.

Our leaflet No. 1, "The Prospective Mother," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Do You Know?

Onions. Odor in cooking can be prevented by permitting a tin cup of vinegar to boil on the stove while they are cooked. Also odor of onions or fish can be removed quickly from pans in which they are cooked by immediately putting a little white vinegar in same and standing over fire for a few minutes.

Tobe on Fashion —

Women Like The New Dark Blue Furs

I think most of us were a little startled when we first heard that furs such as Persian lamb, Hudson seal, mole and broadtail were being dyed blue. Yet after all, why not? If furs have to be dyed anyhow, why not navy blue as well as black?

Actually the blue furs are so dark that they are almost as useful as black. The blue dye seems to have more life and an extra luminous quality that makes the fur look less heavy.

Women have taken to blue furs quickly all over the country. If you're hesitant about buying a blue fur coat, try a navy blue fur stole or cape or jacket and see how flattering the color can be.

The housewife who lives in a two-storey house will find that two closets or centres for storing cleaning equipment and supplies—one upstairs and one down—will save many steps and much energy while doing the daily and weekly cleaning tasks.

Salad dressing. Vinegar often curdles when mixed with other things, such as dressing. If a good pinch of salt is added this will smooth it at once. The flavor is much better if white vinegar is used.

For Bad Winter Cough, Mix This Syrup Yourself

If you want a splendid cough medicine, mix it at home. It costs very little, yet the way it takes hold of distressing coughs, giving quick relief, is astonishing.

Any druggist can supply you with a 2½ ounce bottle of Pinex. Pour this into a 16 ounce bottle and fill up with granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. To make syrup, use 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, and stir a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. It's no trouble at all and gives you four times as much cough medicine for your money—a family supply. Keeps perfectly and tastes fine.

It is surprising how quickly this loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps to clear the air passages.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients in concentrated form, a very reliable soothing agent for winter coughs. Money refunded if not pleased in every way.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Going With Married Man Wastes Girl's Best Years

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a young girl and my mother disapproves of my going out with a married man.

Why shouldn't I do so if I want to? I find married men much more attractive than boys. Also they give me a better time because they have more money to spend. I think my mother is old-fashioned in her ideas. PEARL.

ANSWER—The time will come, Pearl, when you will wish you had listened to your mother's advice. There are any number of good reasons why a girl should not go out with married men. The one that should appeal mostly to her conscience is that when she does so she is doing a deadly wrong to a sister woman.

The silliest of girls must know if she goes with married men single men will pass her up. She will be out of their class for one thing and, for another, the world always believes the worst of an affair between a girl and a married man, and not many young men want a married man's leavings.

Every girl who goes out with married men does something that she prays no other girl will do to her when she marries.

PRESENT CONDITION of her favorite child worries little Janis Watson, but skillful fingers of Mrs. Bertha Burgess are reassuring. Hundreds of dolls from all parts of Canada, some more than 50 years old, are repaired in Doll Hospital each year. Hospital began as hobby for Frank Birch 38 years ago.

TUESDAY SHOW promises fun and frolic for members of all branches of Friendship Club. Glee Club director, Mrs. E. W. Simmons, has been "whipping her people into shape" for performance. Presentation of "Cinderella" will be included in program to take place at Recreation building Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

All I Want for Christmas Is My Doll's Front Teeth

By Barbara Fosdick

"She's going to be all right," the white-coated figure assured the worried young mother.

True, her favorite child needed new eyes, a tooth or two, and maybe a lick of paint to cover the chip on her nose, but a few days in hospital would fix all that.

So another little mother went on her way beaming; one of the many hundreds who go each year to the Doll Hospital to have a broken toy made whole again.

It is thirty-eight years since Frank Birch first made a hobby of bringing children joy by mending their dolls. It is still a hobby to him, even though he and his wife and two assistants are kept busy repairing, painting and stitching all day long.

SUPPLIES SLOW

Ban on luxury imports makes repair supplies hard to obtain. Canadian markets cannot yet supply full range of washable nylon wigs which must be bought from U.S. or lustrous eyes for which Germany was famed before war.

But in spite of difficulties Mr. and Mrs. Birch continue in their cheering hobby.

New lease on life is given these treasured playthings, which arrive for "treatment" from all over the Dominion.

Some, more than fifty years old are brought in by their original owners who are now themselves grandmothers.

Scarred, broken and battered, results of a thousand tantrums, dolls of rag, papier mache or finest porcelain, made in all parts of the world, lie waiting side by side.

They wait for the loving care that will restore them to their former glory and to the arms of some small youngster whose life is empty without her dearest companion.

Calder Play School Meet Monday at 2

Meeting time of Calder Play School has been changed from 8 p.m. to 2 p.m. Monday.

Guests will be welcomed to Ex Wren Association party by Miss Moira McKinley, president, and Miss Mary Lackiwski, social convener.

Mingling in a setting of pine cones Christmas flowers and colored candles, special guests will include Commander Lyle Hoar and Mrs. Hoar, Commander S. Coombes and Mrs. Coombes, Lt. Commander George Manning and Mrs. Manning, Lt. Frederick Short and Mrs. Short, Lt. Daniel Brownlowe and Mrs. Brownlowe, Lt. R. E. Edwards and Mrs. Edwards, Dr. W. L. Peace on Earth To Be Theme of WMS Meet Monday

Peace on earth, good will to men, will be theme of the meeting when missionary groups of Robertson United Church gather Monday evening.

INTERIOR WORK on Canada Safeway Limited's fourth super-market in Edmonton, located at 124 street and 102 avenue, is currently in progress and will be completed in time for the store's scheduled opening Feb. 15, 1951. Store is 130 feet by 75 feet. Outside of building was recently completed by Poole Construction Company Limited.

Room Appearance Altered by Color

Awkward Corners, High Ceilings Corrected by Various Colors

Stop worrying and start working with color and you'll soon have that long narrow room which has been bothering you looking normal.

Or maybe you've groaned for years because your ceiling is much too high? Or that awkward corner seemed the most prominent part of the room? Or the house looks all doors and windows?

Color is the easy solution. Let's start with that long narrow room. We want to make that far end wall seem closer. So we paint it in a warm color that contrasts with the rest of the room, or it can be papered with a dramatic paper in warm colorings.

VARIED TINTS

Warm colors are the reds, oranges, yellows, rust, golds, browns, apricot, peach. That is, they're red and orange and their varied tints.

This same trick will bring that high ceiling down an amazing number of inches. Use your warm color and watch the ceiling come off its high horse.

Warm colors will make a room seem smaller and cozier. So use them if you want an intimate room.

But if you already have small rooms in your house, the warm colors are not for you. Your need is for cool colors, the greens, blues, and variations like olive, turquoise, mauve.

They'll get rid of that cluttered look, will make your room seem more spacious. If your problem is the one of too many doors and windows in a room, the cool colors are your answer.

ONE COOL COLOR

That's why the use of one cool color throughout the small bungalow is so wise. It works a magic that makes your little house grow bigger.

Keep this basic color in all adjoining rooms, and carry it further, with your carpet and draperies. You'll like the result, for you'll feel a serenity that couldn't be attained there any other way.

Painting the woodwork the same basic color, a cool one, is a trick worth remembering when you are striving for unity in a small house, or a room with many doors, windows and cupboards.

All that wood will fade into the background and your room will achieve a composure and poise that is so necessary to comfortable living.

WONDERS EFFECTED,

Then, too, look well into the wonders you can effect by light and dark shades. The light tints will make your room appear larger. Dark shades will bring it closer together and afford a seeming privacy.

That's why a dark shade is often a wise choice in a study and in some living rooms, for it can create a restful feeling.

Then there's the question of that fireplace which juts out too far. You'll surprise yourself and every one else in the family if you paint it light and match it to the woodwork in your room.

City-Dwellers Going Mental, Urged to Get Out of Town

By Douglas Larsen

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—So you're a city slicker and live in the heart of New York, Chicago or Philadelphia. You're up to your chest in culture, foreign restaurants, the theatre, first-run jokes, concerts and art galleries. You're a cosmopolite.

But what you don't know, city man, is that you are slowly going whacky. Your kids are becoming delinquent and you're going broke in spite of what your bank balance says.

The experts have discovered that it's soon going to be mentally and physically impossible to live in big cities.

In other words, city life in the U.S. has now reached its point of diminishing returns.

STRAINS, CONFUSIONS

The city dweller is losing more mentally, through the strains and confusions of big-town life, than he is gaining culturally and intellectually.

And he is having to spend more for psychiatrists, police protection, delinquent correction, traffic handling and remedial social services than the extra money he might earn by working in the city.

This problem directly affects half of the people in the U.S., too. Half the American population lives in big cities, on one per cent of the nation's land. Indirectly it concerns a lot more than half because the trend to the city is increasing.

Census figures show that between 1940 and 1947 the 13 largest cities increased in population by 10.6 per cent and their suburbs by 19.2 per cent.

RECENT STUDY

A recent study in 12 big cities shows that 60 per cent of all post-war housing has been built in so-called suburbs. But moving to the suburbs isn't the answer, according to Paul Windels, president of the Regional Plan Association of New York.

"This expansion," he says, "has become a sprawl of the huge monolithic structure of the city spreading across the surrounding countryside like the flow of lava from an erupting volcano.

If present trends are allowed to continue without guidance or control, there will ultimately result comparatively few solidly built-up metropolitan areas, roughly circular in shape, 25 and even 50 miles in diameter."

And what's to be done about all this? Both the situation and the solution were revealed at the recent 82nd Convention of the American Institute of Architects.

SMALLER CITIES

The answer is smaller cities within regions, Windels and other experts contend, or the building of super-neighborhoods.

The super - neighborhood, or super-block, about the size of three ordinary city blocks, would include shopping centres, schools, theatres, meeting places and apartments. The super-blocks would be linked by super-highways. And everybody would have his own vegetable patch.

The present expanding cities which threaten to engulf nearby small towns require regional planning, Lewis Mumford, an outstanding expert on problems of city planning, told the architects' meeting. And the small town, he says, must work to stay a small town, instead of trying so hard to become a big city.

BOTTLED BATTER HELPS IN HOME

The latest device to ease kitchen labors is a bottled batter for making pancakes. With the flick of your finger on the nozzle the batter, packed under pressure with carbon dioxide, flutts out of the container.

Special Records Now Ready for Tots

Children's plastic records now can be obtained, according to The American Magazine, wrapped in a special folder out of which paper-board stage, scenery, and figures can be punched by any child. The stage goes atop the platter, revolves with it and brings the record to life.

Birds Inhabit 'Apartments' In Africa

WASHINGTON. — (UP) — Even birds are "cliff dwellers," like humans in big cities.

According to a Smithsonian Institution bird expert, Herbert Friedmann, the weaverbirds of South Africa build nests similar to human apartment houses and about as large as a fair-sized human dwelling. These "apartment houses" may contain as many as 95 nests.

Unlike humans, the weaverbirds are not subject to a tight housing situation. They're just extremely sociable, "about as sociable as any bird could possibly be," Dr. Friedmann said. They are found always in flocks, they feed in flocks and breed without regard for privacy in their large, many-apartment nests.

COMMUNAL PROJECT

Construction of the mammoth nest is a communal project. While each family builds its own nest, apparently the whole community cooperates in weaving a roof of sticks and straw over the individual nests.

Water-Saving

Housewives in Chicago must refrain from washing sidewalks from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. between May and October.

FIX-IT FORUM

Q—The soil line from my house to the cesspool is clogged with tree roots. What can I do about this?

Mr. W. J. E.

A—Tree roots can be stopped by occasionally flushing a pound of blue vitriol (copper sulphate) down the toilet. This chemical kills any roots growing in the soil line.

Canada Building Exceptionally High

Contracts Top $161,000,000; Winter Activity Looks Good

An exceptionally high level of construction contract awards in November, reaching a value of $161,249,500, a figure $44,043,300 above the same month last year, promises well for sustained activity through the winter.

Cumulative figures for the eleven months this year now have reached $1,423,276,500, or $404,683,100 above the same period last year.

Stating that the November figure is only $3,401,600 below the mid-summer peak, MacLean Building Reports point out that, while severe winter might prevent realization of some present schedules, these are unprecedented figures for this season of the year.

Greatest gain over last year was shown by the commercial category of construction, which includes also public buildings. Both commercial and residential construction showed gains in all regions of the country, with commercial construction showing a striking gain in the Maritimes.

PACE UNMAINTAINED

Industrial and engineering construction, on the other hand, failed to maintain the pace of last year in the West, and engineering was also down slightly in Ontario. The drop in engineering in the West is explained by the fact the oil pipe line to the lakehead was begun at this time last year.

Comparative figures for the four classifications in November, 1950 and November, 1949, are (1949 figures in brackets): Residential, $44,634,700 ($31,332,400), up $12.7 million; Commercial, $48,719,800 ($28,324,000), up $20.6 million; Industrial, $10,452,600 ($7,535,500), up $2.9 million; Engineering, $58,052,400 ($50,214,600), up $7.8 million

The combined losses in industrial and engineering contract values in the West brought the regional total for that area down from $56,345,500 to $22,555,500 for this November.

Quebec showed an even more spectacular movement in the opposite direction with a gain from $21,649,500 for all categories to $80,907,500. The Maritimes and Ontario also showed increases, the former moving from $3,533,800 last year to $12,774,600 and Ontario from $34,837,400 to $80,907,500.

POWER PLANT

An engineering project, the $30,000,000 power plant and dam on the Peribonka River in Quebec, again led the big job parade for the month. The Seven Islands, Quebec, wharf for iron ore was next in line at $15,000,000.

Next in line, at a considerable drop in value, was the Ste. Foye, Quebec, veteran's hospital at a figure of $6,777,600. A water pipe line to Regina is estimated to run over $2.5 million.

The only large office building in the list was one in Ottawa for a government agency at $2 million. In addition to the veterans' hospital cited above, hospitals at St. John's, Newfoundland, St. Stephen and Moncton, N.B. and Vancouver, B.C., with a nurses' residence also started in the latter city, made it a heavy month for hospital work.

Other large housing projects were started at Sarnia, Ont., Hagarville, (the only large CMHC project), and two in Montreal. Large scal. industry expansion was represented by plants at Sarnia and Montreal, and a cement plant at Havelock, N.B., with new transit sheds being under way at Halifax. A new YMCA building, also at Halifax, completed the list.

Trapper Marks Birthday With 15-Mile Hike

BARRHEAD, Dec. 8—An 84-year-old trapper celebrated his birthday by going for a 15-mile-walk through knee-deep snow.

He said he did it to "get away from the howl of the wolves."

The veteran trapper, Cy Ballenbaugh, arrived in Barrhead Wednesday following the long sub-zero temperature trek from his camp to a lumber mill 15 miles away, from where he "hitched" a ride.

Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR SUNDAY, DEC. 10, 1950

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Neither stimulating nor too suspicious. The Moon and Mercury aspects (unsuspicious) warn against hasty, thoughtless words and actions, or lightly made promises, be kind, rest, too.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—A most responsible day for religious services, money affairs, dealing up with neglected social calls or correspondence. And for taking time for health requirements, relaxation. No extremes.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Your Mercury now warns to be most careful and conscientious in promises, all written matters. Don't be sharp in speech; avoid friction with family, friends. Day can be pleasant. Pray at church.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Imperative not to give way to petty irritation or to indulge moods. It's God's Day and we should be especially loyal to Him with prayers, devotions, and kindly acts to our families and others.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo)—Influences call for our very best manners and genial disposition. No specific unfavorable inclinations, but there may be tendency to irritation, worry. Ask God's help and be your sunny self.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—Restrain any inclination toward anxiety, straining in work or other activities that really don't belong on a Sunday. This should be a period for rest, prayer, happy social affairs.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—You can have similar indications to most of us today. Your normally intuitive mind and friendly disposition can smooth out the possible irritations, help make this a real happy Sunday.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—If you've been looking for a quiet, perhaps family sort-of day, this is it. Not one for unnecessary business transactions or work but for spiritual development, good pastimes, rest.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Really up to you, how you feel physically, what your obligations are, how today will turn out generally. Mild influences for most part. Ideal day for restful pastimes, of course prayer.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Pleasant diversions from the usual week-day grind are in order. Healthy outdoor activities, hobbies, reading, and correspondence on suggested list. First, your church.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Some beneficial star influences lingering from yesterday but chart is only mildly favorable except for urgent duties, service to God and our fellow men; they are always honored.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—You can find things generally cozy, restful, encouraging to good deeds, prayer, useful social activities. Don't try to do more than you reasonably can, yet don't neglect essentials.

YOU BORN TODAY: Vigorous, straightforward, at times inclined to be blunt, this may hurt others unintentionally. Watch this. It detracts from your natural genial, gracious manner. Much capability and versatility in your zodiacal sector. Talent for meeting and managing people, for law, promoting, advertising, public speaking. Keep educating yourself, improving in your work, this will aid future security, add to your assets, can bring new, important friends. Pray when confused, pray always. Birthdate: Cesar Franck, famed French composer; Thomas H. Gallaudet, pioneer teacher of the deaf; Una Merkel, actress.

FOR MONDAY, DEC. 11, 1950

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Moderate routine day. Take care of regular duties, daily obligations. The rest will automatically fall in line. In spare time, build for later date when you may be more pressed for time.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—May have to supply added enthusiasm to gain benefits from today's possibilities. There are some hidden advantages, too, but a conscientious rearch and willingness to work will succeed.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Really on your own today. Configurations chart that you can get what you strive after by hard earnest endeavor. Be ready to grasp openings, no matter how small.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Overcreative not to give way to petty irritation or to indulge moods. It's God's Day and we should be especially loyal to Him with prayers, devotions, and kindly acts to our families and others.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo)—Influences call for our very best manners and genial disposition. No specific unfavorable inclinations, but there may be tendency to irritation, worry. Ask God's help and be your sunny self.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—If you've been looking for a quiet, perhaps family sort-of day, this is it. Not one for unnecessary business transactions or work but for spiritual development, good pastimes, rest.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Really up to you, how you feel physically, what your obligations are, how today will turn out generally. Mild influences for most part. Ideal day for restful pastimes, of course prayer.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Pleasant diversions from the usual week-day grind are in order. Healthy outdoor activities, hobbies, reading, and correspondence on suggested list. First, your church.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Some beneficial star influences lingering from yesterday but chart is only mildly favorable except for urgent duties, service to God and our fellow men; they are always honored.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—You can find things generally cozy, restful, encouraging to good deeds, prayer, useful social activities. Don't try to do more than you reasonably can, yet don't neglect essentials.

YOU BORN TODAY: Vigorous, straightforward, at times inclined to be blunt, this may hurt others unintentionally. Watch this. It detracts from your natural genial, gracious manner. Much capability and versatility in your zodiacal sector. Talent for meeting and managing people, for law, promoting, advertising, public

Uncle Wiggily's Bedtime Story

Uncle Wiggily was surprised. He heard a voice suddenly say:

"Wait a minute!"

Uncle Wiggily looked all around. He could see no one for there were so many snow flakes in the air that it was as if a white fog was all about.

"Who are you?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"I am Foxie," answered a first voice.

"I am Wolfie," answered a second voice.

"I am Bobbie the Bob Cat," answered a third voice.

Then Uncle Wiggily laughed: "Ha! Ha; Ho! Ho! So! So!" And he felt happy and his pink nose stopped trying to turn upside down. For Foxie, Wolfie and Bobbie, who used to be bad, were now good.

"Well, my friends, Foxie, Wolfie and Bobbie the Bob Cat, why do you ask me to wait a minute when I am going into Hollow Tree School to tell the pupils a story? Why did you want me to wait?"

"Because we want you to tell us a story, if you please," said Foxie.

"A Christmas story," said Wolfie.

"About Santa Claus," added Bobbie the Bob Cat.

"Ha Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "That is just the sort of story I was going to tell the children. Why don't you three good chaps come into school and listen. Come in out of the storm."

"May be the Lady Mouse Teacher would not like us in her school," said Foxie as he shook a bunch of snow off his big tail.

"Of course Miss Mouse will be glad to have you visit her school," said Uncle Wiggily. "Don't forget that, although you used to be bad, you are now good. You will be very welcome."

"Come on then, Foxie," said Wolfie. "Let's go in."

"And listen to Uncle Wiggily tell a story," mewed Bobbie.

"Perhaps you three will also tell the boys and girls some stories," said Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, we can't tell stories," said Foxie, shy and modest.

"I am sure you can," said Mr. Longears. "The children would love to hear stories about how you three good chaps live in the woods and have adventures. Come in now. It is story time!"

So Foxie, Wolfie and Bobbie the Bob Cat went into Hollow Tree School with Uncle Wiggily. As the rabbit gentleman had said, Miss Mouse was very glad to see the three visitors.

I'll tell you about it tomorrow if the button doesn't jump out of the button hole and chase after the milkman to get a pound of butter for the spool of thread.

Whale Catch Down In Newfoundland

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld.—(CP)—A harvest of 485 whales was reaped in the waters off Newfoundland and Labrador this season, the two whaling companies here report.

At Williamsport, the Olsen Whaling and Sealing Co. accounted for 155 whales, while the Polar Whaling Co., operating out of Hawke's Harbor, had a catch of 330.

Both figures are slightly below those of last year when the total catch was 544.

EDMONTON BULLETIN SAFETY CLUB

So far our Safety Club column has been directed at the smaller children. This has been done purposely because they need instruction on safety so much more than older boys and girls. But today, how about all you teen-agers giving a listen?

Let's take skating behavior.

Are you one of those goons forever skating the wrong way? Do you think the rink is yours to play cross-tag and other fast-skating games? You know what we are getting at don't you?

Many a small boy or girl has returned from skating in tears, because some thoughtless big boy has upset them. There are safe ways to skate so give the little fellows a break. Act grownup, you know what we mean.

GREAT INFLUENCE

Now that you are in your teens you have a great influence over the small children whether you know it or not. This is more true if you are good at sports.

All the kids will act like you because they hope to be as good as you some day. Take skating—if you tear around the rink in an unsafe manner, and we don't have to tell you what manner is unsafe—all the smaller boys will do the same thing.

Then, sooner or later, someone gets hurt. Many a bump or more serious cut can be avoided. Save your hockey tactics for hockey practice.

Remember fellows and gals, set a good safe example in sports, especially skating.

EASY SO FAR

About our contest. We have had easy problems so far and although they get more difficult towards the end, you will have no trouble answering them if you pay attention to what we tell you in the Safety Club corner.

The first prize for girls is a set of figure skates. Every young girl has an ambition to be a fancy skater and here is a chance for some lucky girl.

Save the coupons—a complete set of eleven may get you a prize.

I PLEDGE:

To stop and look before I step
And cross with light on green;
Go to the corner of each road
Just so I may be seen.
To not run out between parked cars
Or play on any street.
"Always Be Careful" is to me
A motto I will keep.

Tough Winter

CAPETOWN — (CP) — One Norwegian sailor aboard the Antarctic whaling fleet isn't going to enjoy juicy whale steaks very much. As he was boarding his ship here he lost his false teeth.

In Memoriam

To the Memory of Mr. William (Bill) Paterson who died Dec. 10, 1948. Gratefully remembered by Tommy and Mrs. Mireault.

In loving memory of my dear husband, William Paterson, who passed away December 10, 1948.

The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair,
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of one who once sat there.
Just when life was sweetest,
And you could have lived your best
The gates of Heaven opened
And you entered that sweet rest.

EVER REMEMBERED BY HIS LOVING WIFE.

IN MEMORIAM—

In loving memory of our dear Dad, William Paterson, who passed away December 10, 1948.

Time speeds on, two years have passed,
Since death it's gloom it's shadow cast,
Within our home when all seemed bright,
And took from us a shining light.

We miss that light, and ever will,
His vacant place there is none to fill;
Down here we mourn but not in vain,
Far up in heaven we will meet again.

—Ever remembered by his loving daughter and sons, Florence, Eric and Kenneth

Britain to Cut Civil Production

LONDON, Dec. 9 — (AP) — Britain will cut back her civilian production during 1951 to protect her rearmament program from a threatened world metals shortage, George Strauss, minister of supply, announced yesterday in a written reply to a question in the House of Commons. He said the metals shortage has developed "due chiefly to the international situation and to increased demands in many countries for rearming and stock-piling."

Tariff Rates to Double On Canadian Livestock

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—United States tariff rates on imports of Canadian cattle, sheep and lambs are expected to be approximately doubled Jan. 1.

State Department officials said yesterday that negotiations to retain existing rates are in process at Torquay, Eng., but that prospects are these cannot be effective before the end of 1951.

Cattle from 200 to 700 pounds are due to pay 2½ cents a pound instead of the present 1½ cents. Live lambs and sheep imported for slaughter are due to go up from $1.50 to $3 a head.

Cattle imports from Canada last year totalled approximately 127,000, valued at some $12,500,000. Sheep and lamb imports were listed at 40,000 valued at some $800,000.

Britain Awards Plywood Order

VANCOUVER, Dec. 9.—(CP)—British Columbia plywood manufacturers yesterday reported an order for 15,000,000 square feet from Britain, to be shipped in 1951.

Price of the plywood varies from $100 to $200 per 1,000 square feet. The total order will amount to about $3,000,000.

The order represents about a month's production for the B.C. plywood industry.

B.C. lumber mills are also busy filling British orders for 460,000,000 board feet of lumber placed in September.

West Europe Farm Market Pool Possible

PARIS, Dec. 9 — (AP) — Agriculture Minister Pierre Pflimlin told the national assembly last night that France soon will propose officially the pooling of Europe's agricultural markets.

Speaking in the assembly debate on agricultural policy, Pflimlin said the government will urge the pool arrangement as soon as the Schuman Plan for merging Western Europe's steel and coal industries is adopted.

Newspapers Closed By Coal Shortage

FRANKFURT, Germany, Dec. 9. —(AP)—Many West German newspapers have reduced their size because the coal shortage is cutting into the newsprint supply. Many more newspapers are near the end of their paper stocks. Five West German paper mills already have closed down for lack of coal.

LONDON, Dec. 9—(AP)—The defence ministry today announced three battalions of United States army anti-aircraft troops are expected to arrive soon at Worcester, in England's midlands.

REDS USING CAMEL TRAINS

U.S. 5th AIR FORCE, Korea, Dec. 9.—(UP)—American fighter pilots reported a new target today—camels being used as pack animals by the advancing Chinese Communists.

Twenty-seven of the humped beasts were reported killed today in strafing attacks on enemy columns.

Canucks In U.S. Get Same Leave As Those Home

OTTAWA, Dec. 9.—(CP)—The army's special force soldiers at Fort Lewis, Wash., will get the same Christmas or New Year's leave as other members of the armed forces, officials said yesterday. For many of them it won't give enough time to get back home.

Like other servicemen, they will be able to choose either Christmas or New Year's leave. They can get off from Friday night to Wednesday morning or from Saturday noon to Thursday morning.

There will be no special travelling time allowed. So if they can get home and back in the time allowed, that's up to them. If they can't, they won't spend Christmas at home.

LONDON, Dec. 9—(AP)—Wholesale prices in Britain climbed another 3.2 per cent in November, the official Board of Trade journal reported today. The wholesale price index now is 26 per cent higher than in November, 1949, two months after the devaluation of the pound.

Tropical Bugs, Animals Found In Cypress Hills

Several species of tropical insects and small animals have been found in southern Alberta by a University of Alberta professor.

Prof. E. H. Strickland, head of the department of entomology, told the Edmonton Veterinarians Club this week that he located "this mystery of nature" isolated in an area near Cypress Hills, in the southeast corner of the province.

The creatures consisted of scorpions, solpugids, termites, several species of tropical wasps, horned toads and the kangaroo rat.

This is the farthest north that these species have ever been found, most of them never having been found north of California.

"This is indeed an oddity, since the northern specimins are found only within a radius of 100 miles surrounding the Cypress Hills, and nowhere intervening between here and the normal habitat in the southern United States," said Prof. Strickland.

LEFT ON PLATEAU

Prof. Strickland said it was possible that these species of insects and small animals were left on a high plateau through the glacial age, and in years gone by, were quite possibly the normal inhabitants of the Cypress Hills area.

He emphasized that these tropical species are now living and thriving in hteCypress Hills and the Medicine Hat area, despite the severely cold winters experienced now.

He added interest to his talk by exhibiting a live scorpion caught in Medicine Hat, and preserved specimens of most of the other insects and small animals.

Actor Brings Berlin Riot

BERLIN, Dec. 9.—(AP)—West Berlin police last night fought off with fire hoses and clubs a crowd of 2,000 persons who tried unsuccessfully to block the return of Nazi-favored Werner Krauss to the Berlin stage.

Two policemen and five civilians were injured. Dozens more were mauled and bruised.

The west Berlin government had invited the Burg Theatre Company of Vienna, with Krauss as its star. City officials rejected repeated demands from the Soviet community to cancel the engagement.

Jewish leaders were in the vanguard of the angry crowd which broke windows and doors of the Kurfuerstendamm Theatre and invaded the lobby itself.

Despite the uproar outside, Krauss gave his portrayal of the bank director in Ibsen's "John Gabriel Borkman." The exhausted actor, now 66, responded to 20 curtain calls.

Valuable Manuscript Saved From Blaze

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Dec. 9—(AP)—The only American first edition of Handel's "Messiah" was saved from destruction by flames early today as a $400,000 fire destroyed the Franklin Street Methodist Church. The "Messiah" had been borrowed from the Johnstown Public Library by the church choir in preparation for a performance of the Oratorio.

Rooney, Third Wife File for Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Mickey Rooney and his third wife, Actress Martha Vickers, have separated and she will file suit for divorce shortly after Jan. 1, Miss Vickers said last night. Sky Expert Not Sneering At Saucers

OTTAWA, Dec. 9.—(CP)—The man who makes the sky his specialty doesn't believe those stories about flying saucers being meteors.

Dr. Peter Millman, stellar physicist at the Dominion Observatory, said in an interview yesterday that he's made a study of the official United States "saucer" report.

That report, gathering information by men and women who claimed to have seen shiny discs streaking through the sky, described some of the "flying saucers" as meteors, others as weather balloons.

"I'm not satisfied with the conventional explanations," said Dr. Millman. "Some of them may have been balloons, but others could not have been meteors.

"Meteors sweep through the sky in a matter of seconds. The objects, explained as meteors, were seen in the sky for longer periods than that."

BUT SHAKES HEAD

Dr. Millman was asked what he thought the great sky sights were: Men from Mars? Space ships? A new secret weapon?

The sky expert merely shook his head.

He referred to the flying saucer topic at a meeting of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada Thursday night.

His speech was mostly on the possibilities of a rocket flight to the moon. And he was more certain that earth-bound creatures could shoot rockets to the moon than he was that flying saucers were meteors.

"A rocket dash to the moon already is a foregone conclusion," he said. The main problem was the get-away.

Navy Probes Sabotage

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 9.—(UP)—A naval intelligence board started a complete investigation today into five acts of "definite sabotage" that crippled a 12,000-ton transport and threatened the ship's safety.

Capt. M. E. Eaton, deputy commander of the Military Sea Transport Service announced last night the acts of sabotage were committed but he refused to say whether the attacks were Communist-inspired.

He admitted the damage "was more than we had at first suspected," but would not comment on exactly what had been done to cripple the transport ship, A. W. Greely.

He said the five acts of sabotage were committed last week after the Greely steamed home from duty in the Far East. Eaton said the damage "could have more than a nuisance value to our enemies," indicating the blow might slow military efforts in the Korean war.

BOAC Strike Said Settled

LONDON, Dec. 9.—(Reuters)—The strike of 130 electricians at London airport was reported settled last night. The strike, in its second week, was caused by refusal of the electricians to work with two non-unionists. It cost British Overseas Airways Corporation $700,000 up to Thursday. Many flights had been cancelled because of the dispute.

A new British product is an electric tea-coffee pot which may be plugged into the dashboard socket of a motor-car.

Canadian Ships Aid Withdrawal

Evacuation of 7,000 Wounded, Civilians Said 'Most Hazardous'

LONDON, Dec. 9.—(Reuters)—The Admiralty said today the Canadian-spearheaded withdrawal by sea of 7,000 wounded and civilian refugees from the Pyongyang area was one of the "most hazardous naval operations of the Korean war."

Six destroyers under Capt. J. V. Brock of Vancouver and Winnipeg took part. They were the Canadian Navy's Cayuga, Athabaskan and Sioux, the Australian Wallaroo and Bataan and the Forest Royal of the United States fleet.

The Admiralty told the story in typical dry phrases which said:

"Through darkness and through the swept channel of a minefield, the destroyers navigated 30 uncharted miles of the shallow waters of the Daido Ko estuary to cover the withdrawal of civilian, non-essential military personnel and wounded from the Pyongyang area to more advantageous positions.

"Led by Cayuga (ship of the senior officer, Capt. Brock), the Athabaskan, Sioux and Warramunga, Bataan and the Forest Royal ploughed through heavy seas and thick snowstorms to the mouth of the Taedonc River which serves the principal west coast port of North Korea, Chinnampo.

GUNFIRE SUPPORT

"Their orders were to provide if necessary gunfire support and anti-aircraft fire during the loading of other casualties and port personnel in the Doc area, which is some 30 miles on the Daido Ko estuary . . .

"Capt. Brock intended to wait till daylight rather than face a night navigation of the unlit estuary with its treacherous shoals and minefields, but a signal that the withdrawal program at Chinnampo was ahead of schedule made him decide to take the risk of a night voyage up the river.

"Slowly the six ships began the movement up the tortuous swept channel through the minefield, in many places only 500 yards wide, with visibility almost nil.

"It was three o'clock that morning before the look-outs could make out dock buildings dimly in the darkness. Capt. Brock took up position, and his ships were at action stations waiting for the dawn and the possibility of enemy attack.

TRANSPORTS LOADED

"That day the transports were loaded with wounded, Republic of Korea civilian refugees and nearly 2,000 port personnel, and altogether about 7,000 personnel were withdrawn.

"There was no interruption from the enemy.

"When the last ship had left the port, Capt. Brock decided to remain at anchor for another night in the dock area, and next day, after ordering remaining civilians and others out of the military area, his ships shelled oil storage tanks, dock and harbor installations and supply dumps.

"Commercial and civilian parts of the town were untouched."

The statement did not give the date of the operation. There was some resistance but no Canadian casualties.

United Nations ground forces evacuated Pyongyang Monday.

War Goods Ban Put On U.S. Ships

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9—(AP)—American ships and planes yesterday were forbidden to carry war potential goods destined for Russia or her puppets. The Commerce Department imposed the ban, effective immediately. It applies to traffic between ports everywhere in the world.

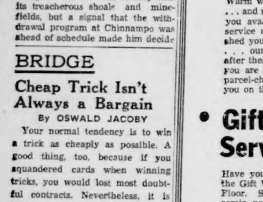
Cheap Trick Isn't Always a Bargain

By OSWALD JACOBY

Your normal tendency is to win a trick as cheaply as possible. A good thing, too, because if you squandered cards when winning tricks, you would lost most doubtful contracts. Nevertheless, it is sometimes necessary to win a trick as expensively as possible to keep from getting in your own way later on. Today's hand is a case in point.

If West had opened a spade.



South	West	North	East
Pass	Pass	1 ♦	2 ♣
2 ♥	Pass	3 ♥	3 ♠
Pass	Pass	4 ♥	Pass
Pass	Double	Pass	Pass
Pass

Opening lead—♣8

South's hash would have been settled very quickly. There would have been no play to avoid the loss of two spades, a diamond, and a club. However, there was no way for West to know that the spade lead would be so much better than the club.

East also had a chance to save the defence after he won the first trick with the ace of clubs. However, a spade return looked very dangerous to him. Moreover, there was the chance that his partner had opened a singleton club. He therefore returned a club at the second trick.

Dummy won the second trick with the queen of clubs and returned a low heart. When East showed out, South won with the king and considered matters afresh. He had hoped to draw trumps in three rounds, discard a spade from dummy on the king of clubs and then give up a diamond and a spade. This plan could not be followed, since all of dummy's trumps would have to be used up to draw those held by West.

South therefore led the king of clubs at once, hoping that West could follow suit once more. Unfortunately for declarer, West ruffed—and here was where South had to be extravagant rather than economical. He had to ruff with dummy's ace of trump!

That left two low trumps in dummy. He could lead back one of those low trumps to his own hand in order to lead a diamond. West played low, and dummy won with the queen of diamonds. Then dummy's remaining low trump could be led back to South's own hand and the last diamond could be returned towards dummy.

Now West could not defeat the contract. If he ducked, South would lose no diamonds and could well afford to give up two spades. If West put up his ace of diamonds, dummy's king would be good later on and would afford South a spade discard.

If dummy had ruffed with a low trump at the fourth trick (instead of with the ace), there would have been only one low trump in dummy. South could reach his hand for one diamond lead, but then would be stuck in dummy. It would do him no good to lead diamonds from the dummy, and he would wind up losing two spades, a diamond, and a club.
